Extraordinary fresher reception of CUET Debating Society

Mahadi Hasan

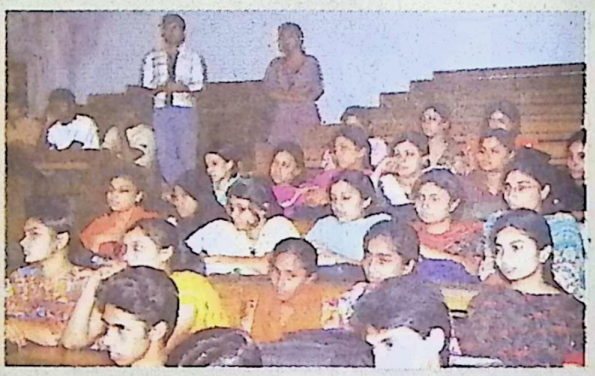

Students and faculty of Chittagong University of Engineering & Technology (CUET) organized a beautiful programme to welcome the freshers. More than 60 students of first year came to attend the programme. The program was hosted by Faisal Rabbi and Sadia. Mithun talked about the relationship between the seniors and juniors.

As per the tradition of CUETDS, in the fresher reception program there is no provision for a chief guest. Rimi of 2nd year also talked on the occasion.

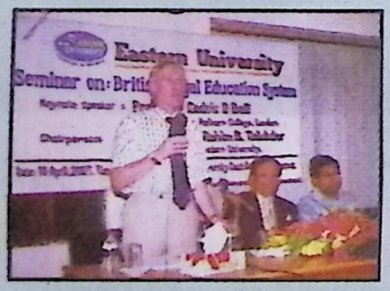

The general secretary of CUETDS Anup Barai talked on the weekly adda of CUETDS. The president of CUET Journalist Association (CUETJA) Mahadi Hasan and general secretary Assaduzzaman Rasel delivered speech as special guests.

What came as a beautiful last minute surprise to all was the resolve of the first year boys that they would never tease girls.

(The writer is the CUET Correspondent of Prothom-Alo)
Photo: Anup Barai

Seminar at Eastern University

A seminar on "British legal education system" was held at Eastern University (EU), Dhanmondi campus on April 18. The keynote paper was presented by Prof. Cedric D Bell, chief executive, Holborn College, London. In his speech the speaker said that British government encourages overseas students to study in UK. The session was presided over by Prof. Dr Rahim B Talukdar, Vice Chancellor, Eastern University (EU).

Baishakhi extravaganza at TSC

Tazmia Islam Nion

TSC (Teachers and Students Centre) organized a five-day long "Baishakhi Utsab" from 15th to 19th April. The programme was inaugurated at 4.30 pm. Special guest of the inauguration programme was Professor Rezina Sultana while Professor Dr. Babuna Faiz chaired the programme.

Each day of the 'Utsab' was scheduled into four sessions.

The first session was for recitation of poem by the university students. There was both solo as well as group performance. The second session included competition on Rabindra Sangeet, Nuzrul sangeet, Modern and Folk songs etc. Dhaka university Alumni association, Dhaka University Musical Academy (DUMA), Dhaka University Sangskritik Sangsad, University Laboratory School and College took part to make the event a memorable one.

The fourth session was all about performance of the celebrities. In this part of the 'Baishakhi Utsab', popular bands 'Black', Lucky Akhand and his team 'Happy Touch', S.I Tutul and his band 'Face to Face', Bappa Mazundar and his band 'Dalchhut' and Partho and his band 'Souls' entertained the audience with their popular numbers.

On the last day a sculpture named " Shantir Paira" (Dove of Peace) was unveiled by professor Dr.S.M.A Faiz in front of T.S.C at 4 pm. Mr. Manzul Elahi, President of Dhaka University Alumni Association, Professor Dr. A.F.M Yousuf Haider, Pro-VC of Dhaka University, Professor Dr. Syed Abul Kalam Azad, Treasurer of Dhaka University and Professor Dr. Tazmeri S.A Islam, Provost of Rokeya Hall, Dean of Faculty of Science, Members of Syndicate were present as special guests.

Prof. Hamidizzaman is the designer of this sculpture.

Dhaka University Alumni Association and Dhaka University Reporters Association cooperated throughout the programme. The media partner of the event was Baishakhi.