Vacancy Announcement
PROGRAM SPECIALIST

The Asia Foundation's Bangladesh office invites qualified female applicants for the position of Program Specialist under its new USAID-funded Leaders of Influence program. The program engages religious leaders of all faiths and secular leaders (including local elected officials, professionals, business leaders, community service club members, journalists, and women and youth leaders) to facilitate national development and strengthen democracy and social harmony in Bangladeshi society.

Reporting to the Deputy Chief of Party, the successful applicant will be responsible for all logistical and administrative aspects of program implementation, with a particular emphasis on facilitating gender representation and substance in all activities. Specific responsibilities include:

- Drafting, editing, translating, and formatting correspondence, publications, and reports
- Preparing draft budgets, narrative reports, proposals, and letters of contract
- Liaising with USAID counterparts, USAID implementing partners, government agencies, local NGO partners, and others
- Reviewing and contributing to the design of program materials on gender and women's empowerment
- Facilitating training and participant feedback sessions
- Developing a database of program outputs, achievements, and monitoring and evaluation results
- Assisting in the implementation of monitoring and evaluation tools
- Procuring necessary goods and services
- Coordinating travel itineraries for in-country and regional exchange programs.

Excellent written and spoken English and Bangla language (including Bangla typing ability), an undergraduate degree in a relevant field, familiarity with program financial management and at least three (3) years of relevant professional experience in development project administration are required. Successful candidates will be skilled in MS Word and Excel, work well independently and in a team environment, and possess excellent interpersonal skills. This position requires periodic overnight field travel.

The Asia Foundation is committed to a policy of providing equal opportunities in recruiting and selecting employees. It offers excellent salary and benefits commensurate with experience. Female applicants are requested to send their CV, together with a brief cover letter and recent English-language writing sample not to exceed three pages, to:

Program Specialist
