

4 ex-MPs among 18 leaders on the run in Jhenidah

They face corruption charges, say police, ACC

HOSSAIN SERAJ AND AZIBOR RAHMAN from Jhenidah

Three former BNP lawmakers including a whip and 13 other front ranking leaders of BNP and Awami League (AL) and their front organisations in Jhenidah are on the run to evade arrest, according to police and intelligence sources.

The 16 include 11 BNP leaders and five AL leaders.

Besides, a ward commissioner of Jhenidah municipality and a Union Parishad (UP) chairman in Sadar upazila are also on the run to evade law enforcer's dragnet, the sources said.

There are allegations of crime including misappropriation of relief goods, toll collection and tender manipulation and land grabbing against them, the sources said.

Leaders who went into hiding following declaration of emergency on January 11 include BNP central organising secretary and former whip Moshiur Rahman and former party lawmakers from Jhenidah-3 and Jhenidah-1 Shahidul Islam Master and Abdul Wahab. Moshiur Rahman was elected from Jhenidah-2 constituency in 2001 election.

CORRUPTION CHARGE
Madrasa principal held in Satkhira

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Satkhira

Joint forces yesterday arrested the principal of Satkhira Alia Madrasa on charge of misuse of fund and certificate forgery, police said.

Principal Maulana Samsur Rahman was picked up from his office at about 1.30 pm, police said. He hailed from village Agardari in Sadar upazila.

A case was filed with Sadar Police Station against him under Emergency Powers Act.

On contact, Sadar Police Station officer-in-charge (OC) Safiqur Rahman confirmed the report.

The madrasa principal allegedly distributed certificates in exchange of money and enrolled students of other madrasas as students of his institution. He also sent up students of other madrasas illegally to sit for examination.

Shahidul Islam Master is accused in two cases lodged with Maheshpur police station—one grabbing relief goods including CI sheets, blankets and Sarees (case no.26 date 22-02-07) and the other (case no. 23 date 23-02-07) is for building his chamber with the relief CI sheets.

Sub-Inspector Monirul Islam (SI) and SI Murtuja Ali are the plaintiffs in the cases, police said.

Kaliganj thana AL secretary Anwarul Azim is accused in two cases lodged with Kaliganj police station. One is for his alleged involvement in a murder and another was filed under the Explosive Materials Act.

Cases are yet to be filed against Moshiur Rahman and Abdul Wahab but they are hiding as joint forces raided their houses several times and they are under watch for arrest", the SP said.

"Although specific cases are yet to be filed against Moshiur Rahman and Abdul Wahab, we have in hand a good number of allegations against them", a high police official in Jhenidah told The Daily Star preferring anonymity.

"You will see how many cases are filed against them after their arrest", the police official said.

"Plaintiffs in the would be police", he said.

Each of the leaders now on the run is on the list of law enforcers and face cases filed with different police stations in the district, according to police sources.

According to police sources, the leaders in Jhenidah-1 on the run are former BNP lawmaker Abdul Wahab, Shailakupa thana AL secretary Mosharrif Hossain alias Sona, organising secretary Idris Ali, Shailakupa thana BNP secretary Amjad Hossain and Shailakupa municipal unit BNP secretary Mijanur Rahman Babul.

Sub-Inspector Monirul Islam (SI) and SI Murtuja Ali are the plaintiffs in the cases, police said.

"We will arrest them if we can detect their whereabouts or if anybody gives a clue", he said.

"We have listed them for their alleged involvement in corruption, tender manipulation, relief misappropriation and sheltering criminal and muscleman. Joint forces raided their residences several times and they are under watch for arrest", the SP said.

Eleven BNP leaders, five belonging to AL a commissioner of Jhenidah municipality and a UP chairman are now on the list of arrest, police sources informed.

Sources in Jhenidah Anti Corruption Commission (ACC) also said that they received allegations of crime and corruption against those leaders including the three former lawmakers. The allegations have been sent to ACC higher authorities for directive, they said.

According to police sources, the leaders in Jhenidah-1 on the run are former BNP lawmaker Abdul Wahab, Shailakupa thana AL secretary Mosharrif Hossain alias Sona, organising secretary Idris Ali, Shailakupa thana BNP secretary Amjad Hossain and Shailakupa municipal unit BNP secretary Mijanur Rahman Babul.

According to the case, Tofazzal Hossain demanded Tk 200,000 toll from Satya Narayan.

As he refused to pay, a group of AL activists led by Tofazzal Hossain looted fishes from Satya Narayan's pond Saturday night.

As local people protested, the AL activists threatened with brandishing arms.

Tofazzal and his men looted fishes worth Tk 80,000 and escaped before arrival of police, according to the case.

Others accused in the case are party activists Adhir Chandra, Hasan Ali, Mohsin, Dakat Mozammel, Mita, Gopal, Amit, Shekhar, Farhad, Minarul, Afzal, Faruque, Belal and Ujjal.

Vast areas inundated as dam collapses in Shyamnagar

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Satkhira

A portion of the Kholpetua river embankment collapsed at Patakhal point in Shyamnagar upazila Monday night, inundating vast croplands and displacing at least 25 families.

Cracks have developed at several other points in embankments of Kholpetua and Kobadak rivers in Shyamnagar, threatening more areas including shrimp farms, local people said.

Local people were trying to mend the breached portion of Kholpetua river embankment at Patakhal yesterday.

They said they approached the Water Development Board (WDB) officials several times earlier to renovate the vulnerable embankment, but to no effect.

The Kholpetua river has already devoured croplands in the area due to unabated erosion, they said.

Padmapukur Union Parishad chairman Amjadul Islam said over 100 yards of the embankment at Patakhal collapsed into the river Monday night due to high tide of the river.

Local people are trying to repair the breached portion of the embankment, he said.

Many families in the area have shifted their houses to safer places as erosion turned alarming in last 3-4 days, he said.

Cracks have developed at Chaulkhola, Chandipur, Kamalkati and Banyatala points in Kapotakha river embankment, which may breach any time, he said.

At least 12 villages and over 250 shrimp enclosures in Padmapukur union will be affected if the Kapotakha breaches its embankment, the UP chairman told this correspondent.

On contact, Satkhira WDB Executive Engineer AKM Mujibul Rahman said they can not repair the embankment due to lack of funds.

He however said, higher authorities have been informed of the situation though a fax message and funds sought to repair the embankment.

Sugarcane farmers demonstrate for arrear payment

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kushtia

Thousands of sugarcane farmers yesterday brought out a procession in Bheramara town and locked the sub-zone office of Kushtia Sugar Mill demanding payment of their dues.

Mill sources said an amount of Tk. 3.9 crore remained unpaid to farmers under the sub-zone as sugar worth Tk.25 crore still remained unsold. The amount is Tk 1.9 crore in the 2005-'06 crushing season, they said.

Farmers, at a rally held at Bheramara Sub-zone Office, declared continuous agitation until fulfillment of their demand. Farmer Azam Ali Mollah was in the chair. Among others, farmers Abu Yusuf, Haider Ali, Jahangir Hossain and Abu Taleb addressed the rally.

Kushtia Sugar Mill Deputy Managing Director Faruk Ahmed confirmed the report saying they are trying to resolve the issue.
