Higher education in Purdue Calumet, USA

Tahmid Latif

IEEE Student Branch, IUT holds seminar in IUT

On Thursday, the 31st of May, 2007, IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers) student branch of IUT (Islamic University of Technology) organised a seminar titled "Higher Education in Purdue University Calumet, USA" in IUT Auditorium. Professor Akram Hossain, a Bangladeshi Professor from the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering Technology, Purdue University Calumet (calumet.purdue.edu) conducted the seminar. Professor Hossain explained the educational infrastructure of Purdue Calumet and discussed the possibility of Bangladeshis going there.

Professor Hossain also gave a presentation of his paper titled "Statistical Determination of Process Capability of Industrial Systems". The paper dealt with the statistical approach into ensuring quality products and fulfilment of their specifications in the industry. The seminar ended with a question/answer session and refreshments.

Prof. Dr. Kazi Khairul Islam, Head of EEE Department, IUT and Prof. Dr. Shahjahan Mian Tapan, Head of ITS (Instructor Training and General Studies), IUT delivered speeches in the seminar. The informatory seminar was attended by a number students, faculties and staffs of IUT.

EEE Dept., IUT

Fresher's reception & orientation at PUB

On the occasion of fresher's reception and orientation of the 21st batch of BBA a daylong programme function was held at People's University, Bangladesh. The function was inaugurated by the Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Md. Aslam Bhuiyan. Chairman, Board of Governors of the university Md. Shirajul Islam Mollah attended the programme as chief guest and Vice Chairman Prof. Syed Abdur Razzak attended as special guest. The function was also addressed by the dean of SBA Prof. Dr. Md. Mainul Islam, Prof. Dr. Ahsanul Haque, Abdul Barek Miah, Prof. Rubaba Rahman and Asst. Prof. Rahnuma Tarafder.

Orientation at Metropolitan University, Sylhet

Mohammad Shafiqul Islam

"Building up yourselves as competent citizens, you should bring pride for your country", remarked Prof. Kabir H. Choudhury, Vice Chancellor of the University, while addressing the students, newly admitted into different programs, at the Orientation Program on Thursday, 31 May 2007. He said that the dreams which they brought with while entering the university must be made to come true. All students ought to utilize the facilities provided to them properly and become ideal citizens of the country, he added.

ATM Shoeb, Chairman-in-charge, Board of Governors, said that the main objective of this University is to provide the students with standard education. He requested all concerned to make the University campus free from politics.

Prof. Khandkar Mahmudur Rahman, Treasurer-cum-Registrar, said, in his welcome speech, that the students would engage themselves in the works for the shining future of the nation with the education they would get from this University. He also discussed about the infrastructure as well as academic facilities, syllabi, quality teaching etc in his speech.

Prof. Shiba Prasad Sen, Controller of Examinations, advised the freshers to abide by the rules and regulations of the University and pay attention to make good results with proper utilization of time. Prof. MA Aziz, Dean, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, said that the students would preserve the good image of this University with their behavior, performance and talent. Mr. Ataur Rahman Pir, Member, BoG, Barrister Arosh Ali, Dean, School of Law, spoke on the occasion among others.

Prof. Suresh Ranjan Basak, Head, Department of English, CM Mukammel Wahid, Head, Department of ICT, Dr. Taher Billal Khalifa, Head, Department of Business Administration, among others, attended the program. Jhuton Chandra Acharjee, Assistant Professor, Department of ICT, conducted the program.

Lecturer, Department of English, Metropolitan University, Sylhet
E-mail: msijewel@gmail.com