

Day 2 emphasized on Drums, and was conducted by Tipu (Warfaze), Turjo (Miles) and Tony (Black) while the Bass Guitar session had Shumon (Aurthohin), Shezan (Artcell) and Roger (Warfaze). Their amazing talents and mindblowing jamming sessions mesmerized the participants and had them get involved in a question answer round subsequently.

The drums session also ended with a similar quote "Drummers are the Kings of the band they sit at the back to look after their kingdom, and without them the band has no body". However the bass conductors stated, "We are pretty much the dormant character of the band"; yet ended with the same sarcasm, "but it is true without bass, something will always be missing in the sound."

Day 3 focused on Vocals. Maqsood (Dhaka), Balam (Warfaze), Shuman (Pentagon), and John (Black) provided various tips and techniques on how to throw one's voice, and maintain a plausible standard throughout a lifetime. "Some of us gargle audibly when we get a sore throat, which is very harmful for the vocal chords; it is best done without making any sound so that we get the maximum help out of it." Said Maqsood. " And for those of you who get sore throat from smoking the best way to get rid of that is to NOT SMOKE." In between sessions, the trainers jammed to provide practical tips to the participants. Toorjo From Red Dot behind the scene joined them on drums, setting the stage on fire. And as it turned out, the session ended proving their quotes "Vocalists are all rounders and it is them who interact with the audience and make a bridge between the stage and the audience."

Day 4 was mainly about Keyboard session and song composition training conducted by Manam Ahmed (Miles), Fuad Naser Babu (Feedback) and Shams (Warfaze) Partho (Souls), Manam Ahmed, Fuad Naser Babu and Balam (Warfaze).

Even though each session ended with the mentors advertising sarcastically the importance of their respective roles in the band, it only illustrated that a band's success ultimately lies in teamwork and each and every person in a band bears equal importance.

Hamin Ahmed (Miles), Shafin Ahmed (Miles), Piaru Khan (Feedback) and others from BAMBA were also present during various sessions, helping the top 20 to deepen their understanding of music. The 20 Bands had the time of their lives with the rockstars in Water Kingdom, bumping cars, water splashing and jamming all night long. "Whether we go on to the next round or not; these 5 days will be more than just memories to us for the rest of our lives." Mitul (Radioactive)
