lobbying their councillors. "But we are in contact with them," he said.
BNP sources said leaders close to Khaleda have also been keeping contact with grassroots level leaders in an effort to be prepared to tackle any embarrassing situation that might raise its head in the upcoming party council.
"The councillors will not accept any proposal aimed at only excluding Khaleda Zia from the party," said a BNP leader close to the current party chairperson.
AL reformists on the other hand said several thousand of their leaders and activists including around 2,800 councillors from across the country will have to gather at the council venue before the council starts, and it is impossible for them to come to the capital in such a large number under the state of emergency.
Moreover, the AL reformists said holding of meetings and political discussions in party forums including in the party's central working committee has to be allowed for holding a council.
AL Presidium Member Motia Chowdhury posed a question regarding how councils of political parties could be held with a ban still imposed on political activities. She told reporters yesterday that the councillors are not 'puppets' that they can be forced to follow the dictates of someone.
"When there is no right to express opinions, then how a council could be held?" asked Motia adding that the party's central working committee has to decide to hold a council before it could be held. "Even, Party President Sheikh Hasina cannot unilaterally decide to hold a council," she added.
Meanwhile, BNP Secretary General Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan continued his views exchange meetings with former BNP lawmakers and its district level leaders to secure support for his proposal for bringing changes to the party constitution.

They are also planning to bring a few changes to the proposal itself, which might include some new provisions regarding making someone the party secretary general.
Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan on June 25 announced the current reform proposal where a number of new provisions were proposed regarding who could become the party chairperson and who could not, but it did not say anything new about the post of the party secretary general, giving rise to criticisms.
"More proposals will come but the party council will take the final decision, before which indoor politics should be allowed," MK Anwar told reporters after a meeting with Bhuiyan in the latter's Gulshan residence.
BNP leaders who met Bhuiyan and expressed their desire to get on the reform bandwagon included former ministers and lawmakers Maj Gen (ret'd) Mahmudul Hasan, Ehsanul Haque Milon, Abul Hossain Khan, Syed Makbul Hossain, Mujibur Rahman Manju, Shah Abu Zafar, SA Sultan Titu, Eng Shahiduzzaman, Anwarul Azim, Nazir Hossain, and party leaders ZA Khan, Brig Gen (ret'd) Anwar Hossain Chowdhury, Lokman Hossain, Kamrul Monir, and Mofazzal Hossain.

BNP reformists said the secretary general will continue his discussions with those party leaders who will play vital roles in the reform process as councillors at the council which might be held amid the state of emergency if the government allows it.
According to the BNP reformists they will seek permission from the government to hold the council after the conclusion of Mannan Bhuiyan's views exchange meetings within a couple of days.

During their separate meetings with Menon, both the leaders elaborately discussed bilateral issues including the Ganges water-sharing accord, security, exchange of information, border terrorism, duty-free access of Bangladeshi goods to India, Chittagong Hill Tracts peace accord and reducing of imbalanced trade deficit.

HASINA'S MEETING
After Hasina's nearly 45-minute meeting at Sudha Sadan, the AL chief's special personal aide Dr Hassan Mahmud told reporters that Hasina and Menon also held one-to-one exclusive talks for a short time following their discussion on different bilateral issues.

At the meeting, which started at 10:45am, Hasina told Menon that India is a friendly country and the AL will extend its cooperation to help develop the bilateral relationship between the two countries.

Asked if the current political development came up at the meeting, Hassan said, "It came up but not in an elaborate manner."

Police did not allow AL leaders Matia Chowdhury, Mukul Bose and Abdul Mannan Khan and journalists to enter Sudha Sadan during the meeting.

"Sheikh Hasina invited all presidium members to attend the meeting. She felt insulted as none was allowed to enter Sudha Sadan," Hassan said.

Hasina also expressed resentment at the government step.

The Indian foreign secretary did not talk to the press after the meeting as the police forced journalists, who tried to stop Menon's car at a security check post, to clear the road.

AL Presidium Member Syeda Sajeda Chowdhury and Indian High Commissioner Pinak Ranjan Chakravarty were present at the meeting.

KHALEDA'S MEETING
A BNP statement said Khaleda told the Indian foreign secretary that Bangladesh always gives preferences to its friendly relationship with India.

Focusing on different initiatives taken by her government with India, she expressed her hope that the foreign secretary level meeting between the two countries will continue in future and problems will be solved through meetings and bilateral relationship will be boosted up.

At the meeting Menon conveyed to Khaleda the greetings of Indian premier Manmohan Singh and Congress President Sonia Gandhi. Thanking Manmohan and Sonia, Khaleda also urged Menon to convey her greetings to them.

Adviser to the BNP chairperson Riaz Rahman, the foreign ministry director general and the Indian high commissioner were present at the meeting.

The kidnappers left a chit in which they demanded Tk 40 lakh in ransom for releasing the Danida staff. But they did not contact with either the members of the joint forces or the local administration.

in a fair and neutral manner but also create a strong base for future elections.

The CA said his government is also working to establish good governance and keep the wheel of economy moving, according to his Press Secretary Syed Fahim Munaim who was present at the meeting.

He said Bangladesh considers Vietnam as a good friend and the relations between the two countries are fully based on solid foundation and cooperation. "The bilateral ties, particularly in the field of economy, will be further strengthened."

The Vietnamese envoy said the trade volume between Vietnam and Bangladesh was $20 million in 2003, which has increased to $65 million.

He said they have set a target to take the trade volume to $100 million by 2008, which is achievable against the backdrop of improving relations between the two countries.

The CA said exchange of visits between the two countries should take place at all levels, including cultural and private levels.

The envoy said Vietnam is grateful to Bangladesh for its support to his country in becoming a non-permanent member of the UN Security Council.

still a daunting task for the Tigers -- trailing by 255 runs -- to avoid an innings defeat with Shakib Al Hasan (4) and veteran wicketkeeper Khaled Mashud (0) at the crease.

Bangladesh resumed the day on three for naught under hovering cloud but the top order showed determination against a rich Sri Lankan attack to take the game into the fourth day.

However, the way the Tigers spoiled the good work was frustrating after two set batsmen, captain Mohammad Ashraful and Rajin Saleh, threw away wickets after a record opening stand of 86 against Sri Lanka between Javed and Shahriar Nafees.

Ashraful and Rajin looked all set to carry their bats but suddenly both lost concentration to put an end to an otherwise solid 67-run fourth wicket partnership. The two not only handled the pacers brilliantly but also negotiated champion off-spinner Muttiah Muralidaran, who made the damage in the first innings by taking five wickets.

Occasional off-spinner
Tillekaratne Dilshan gave the long-awaited break to the home side when Rajin stretched forward to drive but edged to home skipper Mahela Jayawardene at slip.

Ashraful was quick to follow him, within three overs, to spoil their two-hour plus effort. The new Bangladesh skipper was the culprit as he stepped out in a bid to loft Murali but holed out to Chaminda Vaas at long-on when it was just a matter of time to call off the day for bad light.
