Scouts urged to play key role in nation building

UNB, Dhaka

President Iajuddin Ahmed yesterday urged the Scout leaders to take initiatives to further increase the number of Scouts and enhance their qualities and skills in order to advance the Scout movement.

"You will receive full support and cooperation from me in this regard," he said, making a call for the Scouts of the country to contribute to nation building with the spirit of patriotism.

The president, who is also the chief Scout, made the call while addressing a function on the occasion of distribution of President's Scout and President's Rover Scout Award.

He hoped that the century-old Scout movement would be more dynamic and become welfare-oriented through united efforts of all.

He mentioned that the Scout movement, pioneered by Lord Baden Powell in 1907, has spread all over the world with the passage of time.

Congratulating the 53 Scouts who won the awards, the president asked the Scouts and Rovers to play a key role in nation building.

Referring to their various services in the field of tree plantation, sanitation, and health and environment awareness campaign, he advised the Scouts to be more involved in service-oriented work in the future.

Two robbed in Chittagong

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Muggers took away Tk 1 lakh in cash, valuables and ornaments and injured two people in separate incidents in the port city yesterday.

Sources said muggers stabbed and robbed Md Mohiuddin, an employee of Chittagong Shah Amanat Airport, of Tk 1 lakh in front of Holy Crescent Hospital at around 3:30pm.

Agang of four muggers in a CNG-run autorickshaw intercepted the autorickshaw in which Mohiuddin and his relative Abu Taher were traveling and tried to snatch the bag that was containing the money. They also opened fire to create panic, said Abu Taher.

As Mohiuddin tried to resist, one of the muggers stabbed him in both his hands and made away with the bag.

Mohiuddin and Abu Taher were going to Mirsarai after collecting the money from Bhuiyan Motors at Agrabad, sources said.

Injured Mohiuddin was undergoing treatment at Chittagong Medical College Hospital (CMCH).

In another incident, muggers snatched ornaments and valuables from a housewife in Kazir Dewri area at about 3:30pm.

The victim, identified as Shima Alam, 35, wife of Manjurul Alam Manju, president of Chittagong Photo Journalists' Association (CPJA) and senior photojournalist of local daily Dainik Purbokone, also received injuries in her right arm as the rickshaw in which she was traveling turned over following a scuffle with the muggers, who were in an autorickshaw.
