

WOES OF FLOOD-HIT CITY DWELLERS

FLOOD brings a deluge of sufferings to the city dwellers in the low-lying areas. People standing in long queues for a morsel of food, a family looking for safety on a raft with all their belongings, children heading home from school on a boat or a housewife using contaminated water to do daily washing were common scene in most areas in the last one week.

Photo: Star

