

ANISUR RAHMAN

TANVIR AHMED/ DRIK NEWS

ALMOST 6 million people were made homeless after their houses, villages and towns were inundated. Around 30,000 km of roads were washed away, stranding millions more. Crops on 1.5 million acres were swept away, including over 100,000 tonnes of rice waiting to be harvested. The official flood-related death toll Topped 700

NAYMUZZAMAN PRINCE