Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh

Ministry of Fisheries and Livestock

Office of the Project Director

Enhance the Capacity of DLS Project

Department of Livestock Services, Pashu Sampad Bhaban

Krishi Khamar Sarak, Farmgate, Dhaka 1215, Bangladesh

Vacancy Announcement

The project to 'Enhance the Capacity of Department of Livestock Services', is recruiting a long-term National Adviser. The position is based in the Department of Livestock Services, under the Ministry of Fisheries and Livestock. The project is part of the Agricultural Sector Programme Support Phase II (ASPS II), 2006-2011, which is implemented by the Government of Bangladesh with support from the Danish International Development Assistance (Danida).
The overall objective of the sector programme is to support improved living conditions of poor and marginal rural households through enhanced, integrated and sustainable agricultural productivity. The project in DLS is managed by a National Project Director, with support from an International Adviser and national support staff. Bangladesh nationals are invited to apply for the position.

National Adviser (01 full-time post)

The National Adviser will work closely as part of the project management team responsible for planning, designing, implementing and monitoring the inputs, activities and outputs of the project to 'Enhance the Capacity of Department of Livestock Services'. He/she will support the implementation of sector strategies and action plans; advise the Department of Livestock Services on issues of institutional change/reform with particular focus on the delivery of public goods and services; assist in establishing a management information system in the department; assist the design and implementation of human resource development activities; give inputs into the preparation of extension materials and training curriculum; promote coordination with field level activities; assist in preparing and managing short-term consultancy inputs; assist in the harmonisation of strategies and procedures within ASPS II; promote integration of public sector extension services; prepare work plans, budgets and progress reports; in lieu of the International Adviser gradually assume joint responsibility for managing the project together with the Project Director, including responsibility towards government and donor for proper management of both financial and physical resources; and other duties as assigned by the management.

The position requires solid knowledge and experience with both technical and policy issues in rural based livestock/poultry sub-sector development. Candidates are therefore expected to have the following qualifications and experience: Education at Masters or Doctoral level, including a qualification in Veterinary Science and/or Animal Husbandry; extensive work experience in development planning and policy formulation in the livestock sector, including work experience with international development organisations; strong inter-personal skills with high level of integrity, initiative and diplomacy; capacity to manage and facilitate work processes involving partners at different levels; fluency in spoken and written Bangla and English; full computer proficiency. The successful candidate is expected to be below the official retirement age for civil servants of the Government of Bangladesh.

Salary, bonus, gratuity, and other benefits are based on Danida's service rules for locally recruited staff. Applications including full CV, photo, copies of degree certificates, and clearly stating the name of the position applied for on the envelope, may be submitted to: 'Enhance the Capacity of Department of Livestock Services' Project, Department of Livestock Services (3rd Floor), Pashu Sampad Bhaban, Krishi Khamar Sarak, Farmgate, Dhaka, within 23 September 2007. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.

Any attempts to unduly influence the selection and recruitment process will be considered a disqualification.
