Position Vacancy Announcement
 The United State Agency for International Development/Bangladesh (USAID) invites applications from Bangladeshis nationals for the position of Governance Advisor for the Mission's Office of Democracy, Governance and Education (DG-ED).
 The Governance Advisor provides advice and analysis to the Democracy, Governance and Education (DG-ED) office on broad governance issues including, but not limited to, transparency and accountability, anti-corruption, national integrity, civic participation in governance, freedom of information and other related governance issues. She is responsible for managing all transparency & accountability related activities under the Democracy and Governance (DG) portfolio and other associated good governance activities as assigned. She acts as the Mission's principal technical officer for all anti-corruption, good governance and civic participation activities under governance related contracts and grants. The incumbent helps provide leadership and focus for USAID/Bangladesh's programs related to anti-corruption, good governance, freedom of information and civic participation and oversight in improving governance. She will be the Mission's primary link with other organizations in Bangladesh focusing on these issues, particularly Government of Bangladesh, Non-Government Organizations (NGOs), research organizations and other donors and international agencies. The Advisor helps develop strategies to combat corruption in the public and private sectors, strengthen the oversight capacity of public institutions, the media and the Parliament. She also helps develop strategies to enhance citizens' involvement and strengthen civil society to promote anti-corruption reforms. She represents the Mission on various donor forums related to good governance and transparency issues.
Required Qualifications:
 Applicants must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.
 1. Education: Masters degree in a social science, public administration, political science, international relations or other related discipline.
 2. Language Proficiency: Fluency in spoken and written Bangla is required. English reading, writing, and speaking skills are required at a very high level (i.e., Level IV). Must be able to write and speak in a concise and thoughtful manner on development programs and issues.
 3. Prior Work Experience: The applicants must have a minimum of five to seven years work experience in an NGO, Government, other donor agencies or private sector organizations relating to democracy and governance, rural development, human rights and community organization, economic development or other related development topic. At least two to three years of related management experience is preferred. Considerable weight will be given to work experience involving program design, management and evaluation.
 4. Knowledge: Knowledge of democratic institutions and processes in Bangladesh, such as of Parliament, decentralization, civil society development, human rights, media and corruption related issues and problems is required. Familiarity with how development programs are implemented through constitutional bodies, national government organizations and with advocacy and consensus building activities of civil society and local government organizations is essential. In-depth understanding of national level watchdog organizations and civil society initiatives to combat corruption is also required. Knowledge of issues related to capacity development, program development, and management of media organizations and NGOs is required. Knowledge of gender and development principles and experience in their application is preferred.
 5. Skills and abilities:
 • Ability to develop and maintain an extensive range of contacts in Government, donor agency, media and NGO sector circles.
 • Good interpersonal relationship skills.
 • Ability to network with a variety of different organizations that often possess differing views on the subjects of governance, anti-corruption, the media's role in promoting democracy/good governance and citizen participation and oversight.
 • Ability to interact with the elected officials at the national level, local government authorities, staff and citizen groups.
 • Ability to work well and take initiative with minimal supervision.
 • Ability to articulate programs and represent policy positions at senior levels with the Government of Bangladesh, NGOs, and other donors.
 • Excellent word processing, spreadsheet, and internet skills.
 Interested applicants must submit a resume along with a one page cover letter stating level of education, experience, etc. that describes key experiences and perspectives which demonstrate how they qualify for this position. Please submit to the Human Resources Section, GPO Box 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than October 04, 2007. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.
