INVITATION TO ANTI-LIBERATION FORCES

War heroes, most political parties skip president's party

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The major political parties, socio-cultural organisations and war heroes yesterday boycotted the Victory Day reception at the Bangabhaban to protest invitation to the anti-liberation forces.

None from Awami League (AL), Jatiya Party (JP), Liberal Democratic party (LDP), Bikalpa Dhara Bangladesh (BDB), Workers Party, Communist Party of Bangladesh (CPB), Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal (JSD) and newly formed Bangladesh Kalyani Party leaders showed up at the party hosted by President Iajuddin Ahmed and his wife Anwara Begum.

Besides, the sector commanders and freedom fighters stayed away from the gathering as part of their earlier announcement that they would not participate in any state programme having anti-liberation elements including leaders of Jamaat-e-Islami Bangladesh, the party that had opposed the Liberation War and worked as the auxiliary force of the occupying Pakistan army.

needs one ticket to ensure that all his family members can go to their Syedpur home.

There are allegations that a section of staff at the railway stations, bus and launch terminals has kept a good number of advance tickets, especially of luxurious buses and launch cabins, to earn quick bucks on the eve of the Eid vacation starting on December 20.

Station and terminal authorities said the advance tickets had exhausted around seven days ago.

The homebound people also alleged that they had to pay extra Tk 50-100 for each bus ticket and almost double for each launch cabin from December 11 to December 20.

Launch passengers said they usually pay Tk 60-100 for a seat on the deck depending on the quality of the launch on Dhaka-Barisal

V-Day celebrated

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The nation celebrated 36 years of independence yesterday, saluting the gallant sons and daughters of the soil who had unflinchingly sacrificed their lives in the Liberation War of 1971 to translate the national dream of an independent motherland into a reality.

Imbued with the spirit of independence, thousands of people congregated at the National Memorial in Savar to pay their homage to the liberation war martyrs amid growing demands for trial of the war criminals.

Because of the prevailing state of emergency, the celebration was on a rather limited scale this year, which began with 31 gun salutes at dawn in the capital.

President Iajuddin Ahmed set off the official commemoration by placing a wreath at the National Memorial in the morning, followed by Chief Adviser Fakhruddin Ahmed.

8 still missing as relatives wait outside Rangs

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Although it was the eighth day into the collapse of the upper floors of Rangs Bhaban in the capital, relatives of the remaining trapped demolition workers who are surely dead by now according to experts, were seen waiting still for the bodies of their loved ones yesterday.

Rajdhani Unnayan Kartripakha (Rajuk), the government agency which is in charge of the rescue operation, could not recover any body from the building yesterday.
