Outlaw killed in shootout

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barisal

A regional leader of an outlawed party was killed and four cops were injured in an encounter with police in the district yesterday.

The dead was identified as Abul Hossain Fakir, 35, a leader of local Sarbohara Zia Group and son of late Mansur Ali Fakir of Agorpur village under Babuganj upazila.

The injured Sub-Inspector Arif, Assistant Sub-Inspector Zakir and Constables Liakat and Shah Alam of Babuganj Police Station were admitted to hospital.

Police Super Towfik Mahub Chowdhury visited the spot from where police recovered one single barrel gun, six used and two unused cartridges, two bayonets and four empty bottles of phensidyl.

Officer-in-Charge of Babuganj Police Station Ali Haider Mia said police raided the spot on the basis of an information that a secret meeting of Sarbohara cadres was being held inside the betel leaf garden of one Monir Mia at Agorpur at about 3:30am.

Sensing the presence of police, the Sarbohara cadres opened fire on them. The police returned the fire forcing the miscreants to retreat leaving the body of their leader.

Abul Hossain was accused in more than one dozen cases of murder, extortion, toll collection and robbery at Uzirpur, Babuganj, Muladi, Gournadi and Hizla upazilas.

The body was sent to Barisal Sher-e-Bangla Medical College and Hospital in the afternoon.

Local people brought out joyous procession after the killing of this notorious Sarbohara leader.

Political parties hail Quadri of education and primary and mass education ministries, resigned Wednesday afternoon in the wake of huge public outcry over the theft of the two Paris-bound statues.

President Iajuddin Ahmed accepted the resignation yesterday. No replacement for him, however, was finalised till filing of this report yesterday evening.

Terming Quadri a dignified person, Mainul said the former adviser had nothing to do with the disappearance of the two artefacts, adding that the decision to send in the artefacts to a Paris exhibition was a government decision, not his own.

He was hurt at the role of newspapers... if such an attitude continues to exist, it won't be possible for anyone to keep working," said the law adviser.

When Ayub Quadri told reporters Monday that he would take the responsibility for the failure that led to the theft, one reporter asked him whether he planned to step down.

But Quadri asked the reporter whether he wanted the adviser's resignation. As the newsman pressed for a direct answer, he said, "Let's see. I'll think about it."

Describing Quadri's resignation as "very unfortunate", LGRD Adviser Anwarul Iqbal said, "We were working with team spirit... we'll have to make it up."

Anwar, however, said the adviser's decision was solely personal. "He resigned because he has a sense of self-dignity."

Expressing shock at the development, Finance Adviser Mirza Azizul Islam said, "This is definitely unfortunate. I know him to be a very honest man."

He also termed the decision entirely a personal matter and said, "I've nothing to say. He must have pondered over well before taking the decision."

Communications Adviser MA Matin said, "This is very unfortunate."

Giving support to Quadri's resignation, major political parties, meantime, urged the government to show sincerity in recovering the two stolen artefacts and called for seeking Interpol help, if necessary.

Khaleda Zia-backed BNP Secretary General Khandaker Delwar Hossain said the responsibility for the failure does not fall on the former adviser alone but that the full cabinet will have to take the responsibility.

"It is an individual and collective responsibility," he said while speaking with leaders of Jatiyatabadi Samajik Sangskritik Sangstha (Jasas), cultural wing of the BNP, at his residence in the capital.

Awami League presidium member Suranjit Sengupta termed the resignation a good sign.

"It is good that the adviser has taken the responsibility and stepped down," he told The Daily Star. He demanded that the caretaker government arrest the people who were behind the incident.

The Awami League leader observed that the government did not do a good job by taking decision to send in the artefact to France, adding that an elected government would not have done the blunder.

UNB adds that Suranjit Sengupta called on Law Adviser Mainul Hossain, who also heads the public works ministry, to follow suit of Ayub Quadri and resign from the advisory council by taking responsibility for the loss of lives of 11 construction workers inside Rangs Bhaban.

Anisul Islam Mahmud, acting chairman of Jatiya Party (Ershad), said Ayub Quadri's taking responsibility for the failure to safeguard the two Vishnu statues and his subsequent resignation would help strengthen the democratic institutions in the country.

He hoped that the tradition would continue in the future.

Workers Party President Rashed Khan Menon said the former adviser was right in his decision. "I think he (Quadri) has set a good example. It'd be welcome if other advisers follow in his footsteps," he told The Daily Star.

Menon, a key leader of the AL-led 14-party combine, called on the government to unmask those who trifled with the cultural heritage of the country.

President of Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal, Hasanul Haque Inu, said the caretaker government should publicly seek unconditional apology to the people for taking the decision to send in the artefacts to France.

He told The Daily Star that the adviser has set a good example by stepping down from a power position after taking responsibility for failure, adding that his decision would be an example for future governments.

Communist Party of Bangladesh (CPB) General Secretary Mujahidul Islam Selim said Quadri has taken an appropriate decision.

Selim demanded trial of those who were directly and indirectly involved in the theft. He also told this newspaper that the government should employ all means to recover the artefacts.

The CPB leader called on the world to raise voice against the theft.

Jatiya Party presidium member Ziauddin Bhabu welcomed the resignation and said the adviser's step is a good process of commencing democracy system in the country.

Others should follow this if required, he told The Daily Star.

GRENADE ATTACK ON UK ENVOY Deposition of PW recorded

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Deposition of one of the prosecution witnesses (PWs) in the sensational case of grenade attack on British High Commissioner Anwar Choudhury was recorded yesterday.

Upazila Nirbahi Officer of Baniachang Nurey Alam Siddiqui, who was then a magistrate in Sylhet, gave his deposition at the Sylhet Divisional Speedy Trial Tribunal.

With him, a total of 47 PWs, out of 57, gave their deposition in this case.

The court fixed January 2 and 3 as the next dates for recording deposition of remaining PWs.

The judge also issued fresh summons on eight PWs, who had failed to appear before the court earlier.

They are deputy secretary of the ministry of expatriates' welfare Shafique Anwar, Sub-Inspectors Abdul Awal Chowdhury, Sabir Rahman and Shah Alam, Dr. Matiuur Rahman, Dr. Mahub Haider Chowdhury, Munshi Atiqur Rahman, who was the investigation officer, and Abul Kalam Azad.

The grenade attack on the Bangladesh-born British high commissioner took place at the shrine of Hazrat Shahjalal (R) in Sylhet on May 21 in 2004, leaving three people dead and 70 others, including the envoy, injured.
