SC rejects ACC plea for stay on HC bail to Babul

UNB, Dhaka

The Supreme Court yesterday turned down the Anti-Corruption Commission plea for stay on the High Court's bail awarded to detained businessman Nurul Islam Babul.

A full hierarchy of the Appellate Division headed by Chief Justice M Ruhul Amin passed the order upholding the HC ruling.

The ACC moved the petition for stay as it preferred leave to appeal against the November 27, 2007 High Court order having granted bail to Babul and stayed proceedings of the ACC case against him.

The anti-corruption watchdog on August 8 last year sued Babul, his wife Salma Islam and son Shamim Islam for hiding information about their actual wealth and amassing wealth worth Tk 7.43 crore by "illegal means".

Earlier, the High Court, following a writ petition, had asked the government to allow the detainee to leave the Birdem Hospital, where he had been confined by law-enforcers since his release from jail on December 5.

Babul, the proprietor of Jamuna Group and the daily Jugantor, was arrested on February 22 last year and sent to jail with one-month detention.

Barrister Rafique-ul Huq appeared for Babul.
