US mission closed on Feb 17, 21

UNB, Dhaka

The American Embassy, including the Consular Section and the Public Affairs Section with the Archer K. Blood American Centre Library and the Student Advising Centre, will remain closed on February 17 in observance of President George Washington's birthday, an American national holiday.

The US mission will also be closed on February 21 to observe International Mother Language Day, national holiday of Bangladesh.

procedure for paving the way for visit of eminent Indian personalities to Bangladesh.

He made the request during a meeting with Cultural Affairs Adviser Rasheda K Chowdhury at her office, according to a government handout.

The envoy claimed that there is no problem of getting Indian visa by any Bangladeshi for visiting India. "Anyone could visit India as tourist."

The envoy also met Special Assistant to Chief Adviser in charge of CHT and Environment and Forest Ministry Raja Debasish Roy at the latter's office.

The meeting stressed the need for goodwill visit and exchanges in various fields, including tribal judicial system, between district councils of northeastern region of India and district councils of CHT region.

Edn UK Exhibition to strengthen ties

Says British high commissioner

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The 10th Education UK Exhibition 2008 began at Sheraton Hotel in the city yesterday.

University Grants Commission (UGC) Chairman Prof Nazrul Islam inaugurated the exhibition as chief guest.

He said Bangladeshi's 29 public universities and 51 private universities are not enough to provide higher education for all students.

"A large number of students have to go abroad for higher education and England is the best country for higher education. I expect these students will come back to their motherland after completing their higher education abroad and will work for building better Bangladesh," he added.

British High Commissioner

Anwar Choudhury said this exhibition will strengthen the relationship between the UK and Bangladesh.
