Celebrating Cultural Icons

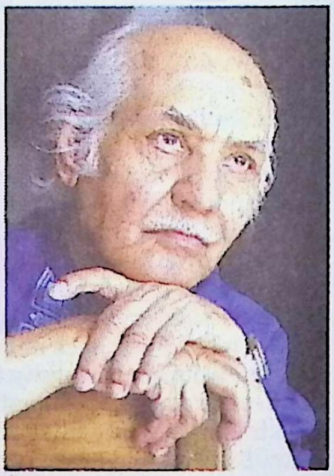

Selim Al Deen

On February 13 and 14, a unique exhibition in Netrokona drew crowds of people that included both art and photography enthusiasts as well as bookworms who were eager to see portraits of some of the most prominent names in Bangla literature. Barin Ghose, a free-lance photographer who was born in Netrokona, captured through his lens, the recipients of the Khaleque Dad Chowdhury Sahittya Puroshkar over the last decade or so. The award has been given by the Netrokona Sahittya Samaj, a literary group of the district since 1997.

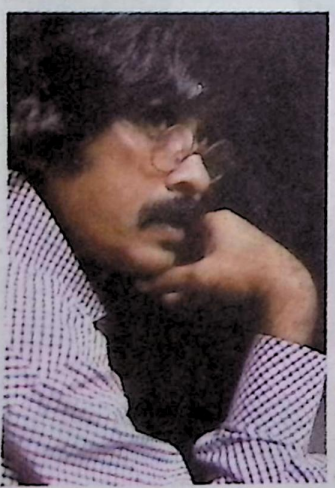

Those who have been awarded since 1997 are renowned essayist Jatin Sarker (1997), poet Rafiq Azad(1998), novelist and film maker Humayun

Mohadeb Saha

Kabir Chowdhury

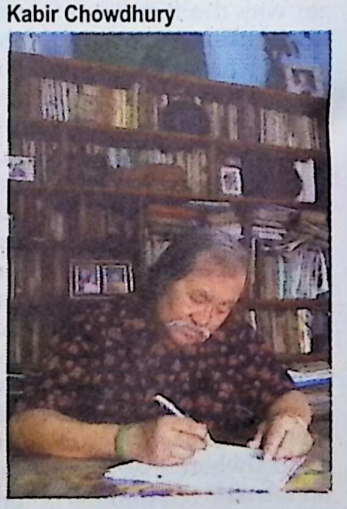

Abu Hasan Sahriar

Humayun Ahmed

Helal Hafiz

Rafiq Azad