Job Opportunity

Plan is an international humanitarian, child-centered development organization with no religious, political or government affiliations working in 66 countries across the globe with its headquarters in the UK. Plan works with over one million children, their families and communities in 49 developing countries around the world, implementing projects at the grass root and national level in health, education, water and sanitation, income generation and cross cultural communication. Plan is registered with United Nations following recognition in 1989 and has consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council and UNICEF. Plan Bangladesh is now scaling up its country program in Bangladesh and we are accepting applications from interested candidates for the following position.

Reporting to the Country Director, the Program Support Manager will be responsible for developing country level program strategies in the domains of primary and basic education, Family Economic Security, Health and Governance Issues for implementation, scaling up and advocating at national level. As a part of the country management team the Program Support Manager leads and manages a group of professionals from different sectors and strives to embed the best practices in community capacity building utilizing the child centered community development approach. The other major responsibilities will include managing a multi sector team for program monitoring and research and evaluation; supervising organizational development initiatives for partners' capacity building and providing technical inputs in preparing grants proposals for fund raising.

This position is based at Bangladesh Country Office in Dhaka with frequent travel inside and outside the country. Critical competencies for this position are:

- clear understanding of and ability to act as development catalyst and practitioner given the country context, Plan mandate and the specific programs - health, water and sanitation, micro finance, sustainable livelihood, social development, early childcare and development, primary education, research and evaluation,
- strategic mind and insight for formulating and implementing development strategies for rights-based programs,
- leadership style which cultivates an environment where people are confident to take the initiatives, be innovative and learn the new ways of working;
- positive team style which adds value to work and reinforces good working practices,
- excellent communication skills for facilitating own work environment and representing Plan Bangladesh at national and regional level.

Applicants must have 10 years' of work experience in NGO sector with at least 5 years' of experience in senior management position. Preferable educational qualification is Masters degree in Development Management/ Development Economics/ Social Science. The selected applicant will be coached by the present expatriate incumbent for six months time. Applicants with relevant overseas experience will be preferred.

The selected applicant will be offered a yearly renewable employment contract with an attractive compensation package plus other admissible benefits as per the organization policies.

Interested applicants may write to hr.planbd@plan-international.org for the job description and application form. The last date for receiving completed application form is 02 April 2008. Only shortlisted applicants will be notified.

Plan is an equal opportunities employer

As an international child-centered development organization, committed to the wellbeing of children and to supporting the Convention on the Rights of the Child, Plan does not tolerate child abuse
