Independence Day.

Rumman, the cameraman, helps her a lot in this venture. Shaila did not see the war but while interviewing people for her programme, she gets a glimpse of 1971. She comes across stories of struggle, sacrifice and frustration. But what really changes her view is the conversation with Rumman's father, who could not actively participate in the war as a freedom fighter. With this discontent, he continues working for the country. To him, the war has not ended. Just the form has changed. The war to shape up the country goes on.
