8 Taliban killed in Afghanistan

Eight Taliban fighters were killed in an operation by Afghan and Western troops after the rebels ambushed a civilian supply convoy in troubled southern Afghanistan. police said Sunday. The rebels were killed late

Saturday in a raid launched after militants had ambushed the trucks ferrying supplies to foreign military bases in Zabul province, a police official said.

"Taliban attacked a civilian convoy. After brief fighting with security guards, the rebels retreated into a nearby village, stealing a vehicle of the guards," provincial deputy police chief Faridullah Zadran said.
