PAHELA BAISHAKH

Security tightened in Ctg

BSS, Ctg

Law enforcing agencies have taken adequate security measures in the port city to ensure peaceful observance of Pahela Baishakh, the first day of Bangla New Year.

Chittagong Metropolitan Police (CMP), district police and Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) have been entrusted with the task of ensuring security in 15 spots and other important parts of the city to celebrate the occasion.

Sources said the CMP will deploy over 1450 police personnel in important places including DC Hill, Patenga Sea Beach, Parki Sea Beach, Foy's Lake, Chittagong University, Shilpakala Academy, Shishupark and Zia Smriti Complex where programmes on the Pahela Baishakh will be observed.

Besides, 38 mobile teams will patrol different city spots and CMP will set up 35 check posts.

Plainclothes police, members of different intelligent agencies and Rab personnel will also keep vigil.

Rab sources said the elite force will deploy about 800 personnel in the greater Chittagong district. They will also set up 22 check posts at different points.

District police source said they will deploy over 1050 police and answer personnel at 15 important points in 15 upazilas of the district.

CMP Commissioner M Akbar Ali Khan told BSS that law enforcers would make all out efforts to maintain peace and ensure security of the people.

JCD factions clash at DU: One injured

DU CORRESPONDENT

An activist of the pro-reform faction of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) was injured yesterday in a clash between two groups of the faction on Dhaka University (DU) campus.

Sources said activists of the pro-reform JCD faction Tariqul Islam Titu of Surya Sen Hall, Arafat of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Hall and Titu of F Rahman Hall swooped on Fazle Rabbi Osmani Titu while he was having tea with his friends at Madhu's canteen on DU campus at about 12:00 noon.

Rabbi, personal secretary to former BNP lawmaker Shameem Kaiser Lincoln, was rushed to the Dhaka Medical College and Hospital with serious injuries to his head and hands.

Rabbi, also a former student of Department of Soil, Water and Environment of DU, told the reporters that the pro-reform JCD activists backed by Syed Iqbal Titu attacked him in a bid to establish their control over the JCD faction on the campus.

Titu, an influential leader of the pro-reform JCD faction, however, denied the allegations.

Sources said the incident occurred following a dispute between the activists of the pro-reform JCD faction over sharing of money.

No case was filed in this connection.

18 thatched houses burn down in Ctg

CU CORRESPONDENT

About 18 thatched houses burned down in a fire at Habillasip village in Patiya in the early hours yesterday.

An electrical short-circuit sparked off the blaze at around 12:30am, sources said.

Receiving information, a fire fighting unit from Patiya Fire Station rushed to the spot and extinguished the fire with the help of locals after a struggle for two hours.

The loss was estimated at around Tk 20 lakh.

Meanwhile, a fire broke out at a godown of Well Group in Kalurghat C&B Road area in the port city at around 11:30am yesterday, damaging wasted yarn worth around Tk 2 lakh, sources said.

An electrical short-circuit sparked off the fire, they said.

Ten fire fighting units from the city's different fire station rushed to the spot and put out the fire after a three-hour effort.
