Australian Leadership Awards – Scholarships

The Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID) is pleased to invite applications under the 2009 Australian Leadership Awards Scholarships (ALA) program from interested candidates who are committed to contribute to the development of Bangladesh. The purpose of ALA scholarships is to develop leadership in the Asia Pacific region. The program is an investment in the future of this region, training leaders who will advance reform, development and governance.

ALA Scholarships are academically prestigious awards offered to high achievers from the Asia-Pacific region each year to undertake postgraduate (Masters and Doctoral) study. Scholars also participate in a unique Leadership Development Program. ALA scholars are expected to return to their home country after they have completed their studies. Managed by the Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID), the ALA awards are highly competitive and targeted primarily towards those who have the potential to assume leadership roles that can influence social and economic policy reform and development outcomes in their home countries and the region. Recipients should also be willing to make a commitment to the exclusive Australian Scholarships alumni programme.

Applications are open to all fields of study; however, scholars in international trade, pandemics, security and climate change (including clean energy) are especially encouraged to apply.

Preference will be given to the following candidates:

- Those who have relevant professional experience in their chosen subject area
- Those who are in a leadership role or have the potential to assume a leadership role in the public, private or community sector

In each case, merit will be given to candidates likely to influence development outcomes at the national and regional levels.

Mandatory requirements:

- Must have a record of high-level undergraduate or post-graduate academic achievement
- Must have an IELTS score of 6.5 or above taken no longer than two years prior to the date of application
- Must have an unconditional offer letter from an Australian university for entry into full time study in the nominated subject area for masters or doctoral studies

You will not be eligible if you:

- Are holding or have been nominated to receive another scholarship;
- Are a permanent resident or have applied for permanent residency in Australia;
- Are married or engaged to be married to a person who holds or who is eligible to hold Australian or New Zealand citizenship or permanent residence status.

Applications are open now for commencement at an Australian university from January 2009.

If you meet all the eligibility criteria, kindly go to the website www.australianscholarships.gov.au or <http://www.ausaid.gov.au/scholar/ala.cfm> for detailed instructions. You are requested to apply online or send a hard copy of the application to the address below. Please note that the deadline for receiving hardcopy and online applications is 30 June 2008.
