Three siblings jailed for life in Naogaon

UNB, Naogaon

A court here yesterday sentenced three siblings to life term imprisonment in a murder case.

The Additional District and Sessions Judge Court also fined them Tk 5,000 each, in default, to suffer one month more in jail.

The lifers are: Mofizuddin, Khairul Islam and Makbul Hossain, sons of late Abdul Gafur Mondol, of Madyachandpur village in Dhamoirhat upazila.

Ten people, however, were acquitted of the charge as their crime was not proved.

According to the prosecution, the convicted picked up Habibur Rahman and his brother Firoz Hossain from their house and took to a nearby bamboo cluster on the night of June 8, 2002. They severely injured Habibur and Firoz and left the place. Habibur succumbed to his injuries at hospital the following day.

After examining the records and witnesses, Judge Abu Ahmed Jamadar handed down the verdict.

Police seized the truck but the driver managed to escape.

Saarc states to help each other to curb crimes

BSS, Dhaka

The second meeting of legal advisers for finalising the draft of South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (Saarc) convention on mutual legal assistance in criminal matters was held in Sri Lanka capital of Colombo last week.

The convention when adopted by the member states, would provide a legal framework for increased cooperation among the member states in addressing criminal issues like investigation and prosecution of criminals, a foreign ministry source said yesterday.

terday.

The important features of the convention include assistance in locating and identifying those involved in criminal activities in each other's territory and also to facilitate appearance of witnesses, official sources said.

Once the convention is ratified, cooperation in dealing with criminals will be strengthened and help curb transnational crimes, the sources said.

Chaired by Dr Rohan Perere, president's counsel and legal adviser, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Sri Lanka, representatives of member states attended the event.

JCD cadres beat up DU student

DU CORRESPONDENT

Cadres of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), student wing of BNP, beat up a student of Chemistry Department of Dhaka University (DU) in the early hours yesterday.

Mahbub, a resident of room No 25 of Extension Building two of Shahidullah Hall, was rushed to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital with serious injuries in his head and hand.

Campus sources said the JCD cadres of Shahidullah Hall led by Mohan, Chanchal, Rana and Munna beat Mahbub in his room at about 1:00am.

Sources said they assaulted Mahbub, a legal resident, as he refused to share his room with another student.

Meanwhile, the hall authorities formed a three-member committee to investigate the incident.
