Bulb factory gutted in city

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A devastating fire gutted most of the tools and machinery of a woodmade three-storied bulb factory at Nazimuddin Road in the city yesterday morning.

Fire Service and Civil Defence (FSCD) officials said the fire caught KC Electric Industries, a small bulb factory, at about 6:30am. Nine firefighters fought for over an hour to douse the fire.

No casualty, however, was

The loss due to the fire was yet to be estimated, FSCD officials said.

Kotwali police said the fire originated from the leakage of a gas pipeline at the ground floor of the factory. A dumb employee noticed the fire at first.

Training for child journalists held

DU CORRESPONDENT

A total of 44 child-journalists received a one-day advanced training on feature writing and creative reports on Thursday, says a press release.

Children's Expression, a project of Mass-line Media Centre, in association with Unicef organised the training course.

From the training childjournalists got concepts on writing creative reports on child rights issues.

Speakers tell roundtable

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a roundtable yesterday said formulation of the National Women Development Policy 2008 hurriedly proves that the caretaker government is trying to remain busy with things that are beyond its jurisdiction rather holding the parliamentary election in time.

The government is supposed to take necessary steps to hold a free and fair election. It is none of the present government's business to formulate policy and to create controversy in the society.

This government has no right to deal with any fundamental work, they added.

Bangladesh Sachetan Nagorik Samaj organised the roundtable titled 'Women Development Policy: In Context of Islam' at the National Press Club in the city with Justice Abdur Rouf in the chair.

viewed from the humanitarian angle. Islamic system is the dutybased legal system only.

Speaking as chief guest, Brig Gen (Retd) ASM Hannan Shah said if any development activities took place for women in the country, it took place during the period of the political government.

The people of the country are not against the development of women. If it would so, they would not allow stipend for girls in school level for more enrolment in higher secondary schools. Even they would not allow quota system in the parliament and women representative in local government system, said Editor of The New Nation Mostofa Kamal Majumder.

Former lawmaker Khondokar Mahtab Uddin, Helen Karim Khan, advocate Saifur Rahman, advocate Moshiul Alam, Associate Prof of BUET Sultana Razia and Darul Justice Abdur Rouf said the Ihsan University teacher Kaniz | Chowdhury and Planning Secretary
