

Like their Indian counterparts, Bangladeshis have shown keenness in using the service. A significant number of Bangladeshis travel to India to avail the country's healthcare facilities.

First and second class air-conditioned coacher are reasonably comfortable.