WITH the stock of music industry of Bangladesh rising constantly and reaching a new height, music shows have earned an impressive popularity resurgence. Concerts, Live shows, Gigs, Jamming, Unplugged music name it and the youthful crowd will rush to the venue with high enthusiasm and love for music. With sassy strums, mesmeric pleximetry, synced lighting Wireless Sessions have marked their brand aura. To be more precise, Wireless Sessions are unplugged events that are organized every Thursday nights for a whole month at Decagon cafe trying to promote the unplugged scenario. It is targeted not towards professional music, but towards giving improvised artists a primary platform to host their musical talent sparks. With growing popularity, The Wireless Sessions are now sessions marked by extremely popular performances by popular music artists like Arnob, Bassbaba Sumon, Nemesis, Yaatri, Dolchut, Shironaamhin and more. Catering its crowd with soulful flavors of wide array of music, the propensity to showcase the talents through Wireless Sessions is hereby reaching its peak.

The anchoring force behind The Wireless Sessions is the CEO of Live2 Event Management, Nafis Tahsin Ahmed Shubho. Wireless Sessions are partnered and supported by amadergaan.com, Radio Foorti 88.0FM, Incursion Music, Decagon Café and Sound Machine Ltd. and organized by Live-Square Event Management. Until now, Wireless Sessions have successfully completed three seasons. The shows first started in July and were a major hit from day one. There have been 13 shows over the three seasons held in July 07, November 07 and finally the third season ended this March.

[Fun Facts @ Wireless Sessions:

Wireless Sessions has never had a single band that could actually pull off with a complete acoustic setup! It was NEVER a complete unplugged show!

Over 55 bands/artists have participated in the 13 sessions, sometimes performing more than once!

ALL the organizers / volunteers paid to get in to watch/work for the event!

The brand Wireless Sessions has set the trend of café shows all throughout the city.

