16th Young Artists' Art Exhibition

Shyamal Sarker: Winner of Best Award in Sculpture

Sculptor Shyamal Sarker

ERSHAD KAMOL

Young sculptor Shyamal Sarker has won the Best Award in Sculpture at the ongoing 16th Young Artists' Art Exhibition at the National Art Gallery, organised by the Department of Fine Arts, Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy. He has won the award for his work titled Centre Table.

The fibreglass made sculpture features two figures sitting across a circular table with food, cutlery, a wine bottle and glasses. One of the figures is holding a wine glass in a leisure mood. Another is eating with one hand and holding a wine glass with the other.

"It's a political satire. In fact, both of the figures represent the same person: an evil politician. The figure on the right represents the outlook of the character and the left represents the psyche: tendency to possess everything around," said Shyamal.

He further added, "I've used the images of animals on the figures and on the legs of the chairs to represent the psyche of the evil politicians. The images of human brain and flesh have been created as their dishes. Black colour of the sculpture represents the contemporary social turmoil, which is the impact of the anarchy created by the evil politicians to fulfil their desires."

After winning the award, an enthusiastic Shyamal said, "Earlier I won an award at the annual competition organised by the Institute of Fine Arts (IFA). But, this success at the 16th Young Artists' Art Exhibition will inspire me to go ahead."

An MFA second part student at the Department of Sculpture at the IFA, Shyamal works in different mediums such as cement, fibreglass, metal and wood. But, he prefers fibreglass and cement most.

He said, "As a student of sculpture I'm experimenting with different mediums. I prefer to work with cement and fibreglass, as both are comparatively cheap and easy to work with."

On his future plan, Shyamal said, "I want to be a freelance sculptor. But, the path is not easy for upcoming artists. Fund is the main obstacle, as sculpture is an expensive medium."

"Doing beautification at private residences I collect my fund for the sculptures," he added.
