7 RMG workers injured in clash over pay hike

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Naganj

At least seven workers were injured here yesterday as two groups of workers locked in a clash over pay hike at Rahman Sweater Factory at Kurubail/Fatullah upazila.

Witnesses said the agitating workers went into movement for increasing their wage. At one stage, a clash occurred between the agitators and a group of anti-movement workers.

Later, the situation was brought under control with the declaration of payhike.

The injured workers were identified as Shamim, Shuman, Azad, Shohag, Jewel, Shabuj and Sami.

Police and workers' sources said around 450 workers of production section of the factory took to the street for a pay hike to Tk 235 per worker from Tk 160.

The agitating students asked the workers of knitting and dyeing section of the same garments. But they wanted to continue their work. Then the agitators locked into the clash with the non-agitating workers.

Hearing the news, members of the joint forces went to the spot and brought the tense situation under control.

Later, a tripartite meeting was held between joint forces, owner and workers. They set wage at Tk 225.
