Shishir Bhattacharjee's solo exhibition at Gallery Kaya

Art works by Shishir Bhattacharjee

ERSHAD KAMOL

As a cartoonist artist Shishir Bhattacharjee has attained popularity for his sharp satire on contemporary social milieu, especially the political turmoil. In his drawings and paintings also Shishir has pointed out the disorders of the society.

The third solo exhibition titled Lines and Lyrics by Shishir Bhattacharjee was inaugurated on June 6. The exhibition has been organised to celebrate the 4th anniversary of Galleri Kaya. Twenty-six artworks by Shishir are on display, which will continue till June 20.

USP of Shishir's works remains on his compositions. Using powerful yet rhythmic lines Shishir has juxtaposed different figures and elements, which creates illusion. The black and white compositions represent different colours of the society: sometimes dark and sometimes bright.

Each of the compositions contains many figures. Highly experimentation on forms of human, animal and nature in his drawings symbolically represents the inner psyche of human being; sometimes we act like animals.

Again some of the drawings, number is very few, features the harmonious interrelationship between man and nature.

However, bright colours have been used in his paintings and mixed media works. In these types of works, Shishir has portrayed the reality of the society as 'filmy'. The human figures and weapons have been composed like the banners of Dhaliwood film industry, however, these works relate the contemporary political scene on Bangladesh.

The exhibition was inaugurated by former Chief Adviser justice Muhammad Habibur Rahman. Artists Shishir Bhattacharjee, seasoned artist Aminul Islam and Director of Galleri Kaya Goutam Chakraborty were the other discussants at the programme.

Shishir Bhattacharjee said, "Nowadays I'm not doing cartoons, but working on drawings and paintings. In these works I'm focusing on the contemporary society in an implicit way."

Artist Aminul Islam said, "Shishir has been working on black and white for many years. He has attained his distinctive style through which he satires the socio-political turmoil."

(L-R) Md. Shamsuddin Mondol of Naogaon and Zahir Alam of Sylhet receive crests from artist Mustafa Monwar and Language Movement veteran Abdul Matin respectively at the award giving ceremony titled "Shada Moner Manush" organised by Unilever Bangladesh Limited. The programme was held at Winter Garden, Hotel Sheraton on June 6. Zahir Alam and Md. Shamsuddin Mondol are two of the ten awardees, who were honoured for their contribution to enlightening the society. (Below) Ten noted singers perform Aamar-o desher matir gondhey as a tribute to the ten awardees.

All programmes are in local time. The Daily Star will not be responsible for any change in the programme.
