Remembering Dr. Neelima Ibrahim

Bangladesh Mahila Samity's tribute to the writer, social reformer

Falguni Hamid performs in Ami Birangana Bolchhi

On the occasion of 6th death anniversary of renowned academic, Professor Neelima Ibrahim, Bangladesh Mahila Samity organised a discussion, says a press release. A solo performance by Falguni Hamid, of theatre group Natyachakra, followed the discussion. Hamid performed excerpts from Neelima Ibrahim's most celebrated publication "Ami Birangana Bolchhi". Paying homage to the creative writer, brilliant teacher and a pioneer among social reformers on gender equality and women's empowerment, Natyachakra presented their 50th production under the title "It's me, Birangana".

Amidst pin-drop silence in the auditorium, the performance rolled on. At a point, the audience was seemingly on the verge of tears as the actress narrated this inhuman abuse and bondage of the Bengali women by the Pakistani army and their collaborators. As the play came to an end the audience gave a standing ovation to the actress whose performance addressed about 250,000 Biranganas who bore the brunt throughout the Liberation War.

Shabana Azmi as goodwill ambassador for AIDS programme

SAARC has appointed actress and social activist Shabana Azmi as its Goodwill Ambassador for HIV and AIDS programme for its member countries.

"Member nations of the South Asian bloc - Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal, Pakistan, Maldives, Sri Lanka and India - met in Kathmandu in April and selected Azmi and Sri Lankan cricketer Sanath Jayasuriya as Goodwill Ambassadors for HIV and AIDS from a large number of nominations which had been received from the member countries," an official release said.

Her name was recommended by National AIDS Control Organisation (NACO), it said.

The conferment of the title as well as launch of the programme is likely to take place during the 15th SAARC Summit to be held in Colombo in August, it added.

As the Goodwill Ambassador, Azmi would facilitate the implementation of SAARC regional strategy on HIV and AIDS and its work plan in the member countries, besides addressing issues of stigma and discrimination and creating awareness.

The SAARC Goodwill Ambassador programme was conceived with the objective of facilitating the SAARC regional strategy on HIV and AIDS and its work plan.
