INTERNATIONAL

India's South Central Railways officials inspect the charred wreck of carriages of the Gautam Express at Warangal District some 150km from Hyderabad yesterday after a fire engulfed a train in the southern Indian state of Andhra Pradesh. At least 20 people died and four were injured when fire spread quickly through a packed train in southern India early yesterday.

US not neglecting Asia

Says President Bush

AP, Bangkok

President Bush has countered critics who claim his global war on terrorism has lessened Washington's role in Asia and allowed China's influence to grow in the region, news reports said yesterday.

Preparing to embark on a threecountry Asian trip, Bush said in interviews with senior Asian editors in Washington on Thursday that "our foreign policy has been robust in the Far East." His remarks were carried in Bangkok newspapers Friday.

The president, on a farewell tour of Asia, will visit Thailand, South Korea and China Aug. 5-11.

deliver a "comprehensive" policy speech on Asia stressing that the United States has strategic inter- Japan and China have never been nism," he said.

ests in the region and "must stay stronger. engaged," Thailand's English language The Nation said Friday.

Another theme of his trip will be are," he added. human rights. He is to meet with activists opposed to the military of China and India as positive. regime in Myanmar during his during the Olympic Games.

the US president who happens to areas, security areas ... on the envibe a sports fan, "The Nation quoted ronment." him as saying.

in its report of the interview. "In terms of foreign policy in the Far East, it is mistaken if someone gets solved, if North Korea verifi-While in Thailand, he is to was on the war on terror," he said. programmes, ambitions, then the (Thailand), South Korea, with another (multilateral) mecha-

"And it took a lot of work to get bilateral relations as strong as they Bush said he viewed the growth

"India and China and the US Bangkok stay and will raise human will provide great opportunities for rights and religious issues when he entrepreneurs and businesses meets President Hu Jintao of China throughout the region," he said. "It'll provide opportunities to work "I am going to China this time as collaboratively on strong strategic Bush stressed the need for the Bush countered critics of his US to work through multilateral Asia policy, the Bangkok Post said efforts like the six-party talks on North Korea.

"Our vision is, once that issue were to say that my preoccupation ably gives up its weapons, "Our relations with your country six-party talks can serve as

US wants me dead, says Karadzic AFP, The Hague

Former Bosnian Serb leader Radovan Karadzic said yesterday the United States wanted him dead and accused it of reneging on a deal to shield him from trial by the UN war crimes court. In a submission to the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY), Karadzic said the United States' Bosnian peace negotiator Richard Holbrooke had promised he would avoid a trial if he withdrew from public life. "Mr Holbrooke undertook on behalf of the USA that I would not be tried before this tribunal... Karadzic said in the written submission made public by the ICTY. Holbrooke strongly denied any such deal was struck after Karadzic, who was captured on July 21, first made the claims when he made his initial appearance before the UN tribunal on Thursday.

Karadzic said in the documents that the offer was made in isters who were my authorised | from Iran. representatives".

Weekend deadline for Iran in nuclear showdown

AFP, Washington

The United States yesterday set the weekend as a deadline for Iran to reply to the latest international offer of incentives for a freeze in its Iranian Foreign Minister Manouchehr Mottaki said Thursday that there was no deadline and that his country had already replied. The US State Department had been vague about the deadline but narrowed it down on Friday.

"We expect a response this weekend," Gonzalo Gallegos, a State Department spokesman, told AFP without specifying Saturday or come in the next few days but flict. insisted that the international Condoleezza Rice had given Iran a way out of this conundrum," Sick uranium enrichment. two weeks to come up with a "serious" reply after an international Relations (CFR), a US think-tank. meeting in Geneva on July 19, of stonewalling.

US officials said they wanted to encourage those in Iran who want to cooperate with the West to ease the economic and financial pressure caused by UN sanctions.

University, an Iran expert who was interviewed after the July 19 meeting, said Washington and Tehran were both showing an increased A diplomatic source in Brussels desire to end the showdown that said an Iranian response could has raised fears of a military con-

"Neither side wants to show that told the Council on Foreign

Sick said another "change on which saw Tehran broadly accused both sides" is Washington's willingness to look at opening an inter-Washington broke with past ests section in Iran -- a first step policy by sending top diplomat toward restoring diplomatic ties William Burns to the talks in cut three decades ago -- and chief Javier Solana delivered the Tehran's openness to the idea.

The expert said that June. Washington had learned that its past desire to isolate Iran with increasingly stiff sanctions had failed to stop Iran enriching ura-Gary Sick of Columbia nium -- a key stage in efforts to make a nuclear bomb.

> Along with the four other permanent UN Security Council members -- Britain, France, China, and Russia -- as well as Germany, the conciliatory approach lately.

The so-called P5-plus-1 has 1996 to "the statesmen and min- community wanted an answer it is losing face, or that it is caving in offered Iran benefits in civil nuclear late about what action the allies or appeasing the other side, but energy, trade, finance, agriculture would take if Iran's fell short of US Secretary of State both sides are interested in finding and high technology if it freezes expectations.

If Iran accepts the package, there would be pre-negotiations during which Tehran would add no more uranium-enriching centrifuges and, in return, face no further sanctions.

European Union foreign policy incentives package to Tehran in

In Brussels, the diplomatic source, who asked not to be named, said that for the Europeans "the Iranian reply should come in the next few days," without setting Saturday as a strict deadline.

"The situation today is that we want a clear reply to the question Solana asked in Geneva," the source said. "For the moment, the United States has taken a more Iranian response has not been clear

The source declined to specu-

16 female students die in Turkey dorm collapse

AP, Ankara

A three-story dormitory housing female students collapsed in central Turkey yesterday, killing 16 students, injuring at least 27 and students were brought out of the setting off a search for a half dozen debris with injuries, said Hasan students believed to be under the Kucukkendirci, who heads the rubble, authorities said.

debris with shovels, pickaxes and their bare hands in search of any sustained severe burns.

Demirgul told Turkey's NTV television. He estimated six more stu- during the school summer break. dents were trapped in his village in central Konya province.

gas canister explosion is believed dawn prayers when she and some to have caused the collapse. However, the state-run Anatolia went to the kitchen to investigate.

news agency and other reports later said the explosion was most likely caused by a leak from a gas installation there. Besides the fatalities, at least 27 local health authority. Galip Sef, an Frantic rescue workers removed official with the local emergency services, said three of the students

Provincial Gov. Osman Aydin "We are hearing voices. I believe, said an estimated 40 to 45 girls were those inside the rubble will be staying at the dormitory. The stusaved," Balcilar Mayor Melmut dents, between ages eight and 16, were attending Quran courses

Anatolia news agency quoted one student, Merve Avci, as saying He intially told reporters a large she had got up to wash before preteachers heard a strange sound and Rescuers sift through debris on the collapsed building which housed a school in Taskent, Konya state central Turkey yesterday. At least 16 schoolgirls were killed and 23 others injured as the girls' boarding school collapsed.

Record Afghan unrest hampering aid: NGOs

AFP, Kabul

have hit record highs this year with hundreds of civilians killed, including 19 aid workers, and spreading insecurity cutting back relief work, aid groups said yesterday.

stable areas and welfare agencies were forced to scale back aid delivery even as drought and food price other month since the end of major late 2001. hikes put millions of people in hostilities following the internadifficulty, the Agency Coordinating tional intervention in 2001," it said. Body for Afghan Relief said.

insurgent attacks, bombings and conflict and whilst exact figures are mostly air strikes on insurgents, other violent incidents is up by not yet available, this could include killed nearly 80 civilians, according approximately 50 percent on the up to 1,000 civilians," the group to Afghan and military officials.

same period last year," said ACBAR, added. a grouping of about 100 Afghan and organisations.

attacks in May and 569 in June, it said. said in a statement, citing figures Unrest had spread to once the Afghanistan NGO Safety Office.

"So far this year the number of reportedly lost their lives in the ens more dead. Military action,

Initial estimates were that more July, which was higher than any There were 463 insurgent other month in the past six years, it from a range of sources including violence of an insurgency by sharp divisions over genocide Islamic extremists launched after This was "greater than the the Taliban were ousted from number of such attacks in any government in a US-led invasion in

A suicide bomb at the Indian embassy in Kabul killed around 60 "This year 2,500 people have people and other attacks left doz-

UN vote extends Darfur New US defence strategy peacekeeping But US abstains

Nato soldier, 5 Afghan cops killed in violence

AP, United Nations

Insurgent attacks in Afghanistan international non-governmental than 260 civilians were killed in The UN Security Council approved another year of peacekeeping in Sudan's bloodied Darfur region Thursday night, but the US July saw some of the worst | abstained from a vote that reflected charges against the Sudanese president.

> The United States, despite and others to justice." support for the struggling peacekeeping mission, did not vote because of its opposition to any delay in efforts to prosecute Sudanese President Omar Hassan al-Bashir.

approved 14-0 carried language homes.

A Nato soldier was killed in a bomb explosion in eastern Afghanistan

Friday, the force said, as authorities announced that five policemen

Security Assistance Force did not release the nationality of the dead soldier, who became the 145th international trooper to die in (improvised explosion device) attack in Khost province August 1," killed late Thursday when their jeep was struck by another bomb in the southern province of the force said in a statement.

"An Isaf soldier died in an IED

Five Afghan policemen were

The Nato-led International had died in a similar blast.

Afghanistan this year.

Kandahar, police said.

AFP, Kabul

that noted an African Union | AFP, Washington request to freeze the International Criminal Court's prosecution of al-

Though the measure does not stop the prosecution, US Deputy Ambassador Alejandro Wolff said that the language "would send the wrong signal" to al-Bashir and "undermine efforts to bring him

Luis Moreno-Ocampo, chief prosecutor of the international court, filed 10 charges against al-Bashir on July 14 related to violence in Darfur that the UN says has claimed 300,000 lives and driven The resolution that was 2.5 million people from their wounded in the blast in Panjwayi.

deputy district police chief

Bismillah Khan told AFP. The policemen were on a patrol in the volatile area when the remote-controlled bomb blew up their widely used by Taliban insurgents in their attacks against the Afghan security forces killed in the country die in bomb blasts, accord-

Western-backed government.

ing to security officials.

ministry.

Two other officers were increased year on year.

Olmert grilled again

The device was similar to those

Most of the international and

About 800 Afghan policemen

The Taliban launched an insurgency after being ousted from late 2001. The violence has government in a US-led invasion in and soldiers have been killed so far this year, according to the interior vehicle, he said.

centres on 'long war'

A new defence strategy released acy. Thursday places the "long war" against extremism above potential conventional challenges from China and Russia as the top priority of the US military in the coming

"For the foreseeable future, winning the Long War against violent extremist movements will be the central objective of the US," the strategy paper said.

The document encapsulates a shift that has already been underway because of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, but one that has met resistance from some in the military who worry about sacrificing that in the future we will again conventional US military suprem- neglect the latter," he told report-

US Defence Secretary Robert Gates defended the new strategy, saying it was an attempt to incorporate the lessons learned from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

He said conventional weapons United States." programmes already account for acquisition budget, but there is no political constituency supporting the new requirements for irregular and asymmetric warfare.

"The danger is not that modernization will be sacrificed to fund in modernisation programmes asymmetric capabilities, but rather that are of concern, "Gates said.

> The strategy paper notes that China is expanding its conventional military capabilities and that Russia's "retreat from openness and democracy could have significant security implications for the

But in both cases, it said the goal the lion's share of the Pentagon's of the United States should be to build "collaborative and cooperative relationships with them." "I don't see either nation as a threat to the United States at this point, but they both are investing International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) Director General Mohamed ElBaradei (L) listens to the chairman of the board and head of Chile's delegation Milenko Skoknic yesterday during the board of governors meeting at the agency's headquarters in Vienna. The UN atomic watchdog's board of governors convened for talks with India on safeguards for a controversial nuclear cooperation deal between New Delhi and Washington.

Obama-McCain race turns toxic

AFP, Washington

Thursday as the campaign air filled attacks. with accusations of race-baiting and gutter politics.

the economy and the Iraq war negative, shameful and wrong," Republican McCain responded Rick Davis in a statement. with fury to Obama's claims that exotic name and appearance for to say that it is. It's legitimate electoral gain. The Democrat in turn said paign for that. There's no place for against him.

McCain, his campaign reinforced it and we shouldn't be doing it," the by proteges of President George W. The White House contest between Bush's long-time aide Karl Rove, Barack Obama and John McCain was stooping to the "low road" of took one of its nastiest lurches yet politics with a slew of character race card, and he played it from the Top campaign issues such as bottom of the deck. It's divisive, took a back-seat, as the said McCain's campaign manager

Asked if Davis's criticism was know, he doesn't look like all those his opponents would exploit his fair, McCain told CNN: "I'm sorry "There's no place in this cam-

Arizona senator said at a stop in Wisconsin. In Missouri on Wednesday, the African-American Obama had said McCain's campaign was mounting "Barack Obama has played the personal attacks against him to divert attention from what he said was a dearth of solutions to America's problems. "You know, 'he's not patriotic enough, he's got a funny name. You over graft claims AFP, Jerusalem

Israeli police grilled Prime Minister Ehud Olmert again yesterday over graft allegations that have dogged his term in office, two days after his came just two day after the premier surprise resignation announce-that anti-fraud squad officers have party. interviewed Olmert, 62, at his official residence in Jerusalem in connection with the allegations of wrongdoing, which he has strongly denied. other presidents on those dollar bills, you know, he's risky," Obama said, ridiculing supposed attacks gally received electoral and other funding from a wealthy US financier and that he sent out multiple bills for the same overseas trips.

The latest round of questioning announced he would step down after a September 17 leadership It was the fourth time since May election in his centrist Kadima

His decision to go has cast a shadow over already slow-moving US-backed peace negotiations with the Palestinians and recently Police remained tight-lipped revived indirect talks with Syria and but the questioning was likely to raised the spectre of political turfocus on allegations Olmert ille- moil in Israel.

Applications are invited for admission into the following degree programs in Fall Semester starting in September 2008

Master in Development Studies

A professional program for Development Management

Key Features

. The program is designed to develop human resources suitable for development management. . Emphasizes on development research, management of development organizations, and efficient project management and evaluation. · Courses taught by faculty with Ph.D. from abroad and with research and management experiences in Development Organizations

· Weekend classes for working students.

. Evening classes in weekdays to accommodate working students

· A Second Class in a three years' Bachelor degree OR A Second Class in Master degree. Degree should be in Economics, Business, Environmental Studies, Social Welfare, Sociology, Anthropology, Political Science, Public administration or other related subjects from any recognized university.

MS in Economics

with specialization in . International Economics . Financial Economics & Banking •Development Economics • Environmental & Natural Resources Economics • Econometrics

Key Features

· Courses taught by reputed Ph.D. faculty from home & abroad

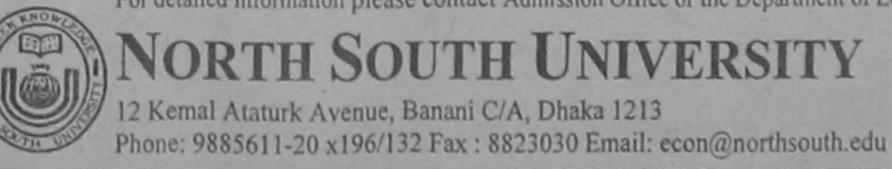

· Weekend classes for working students. · Evening classes in weekdays to accommodate working students

· Financial assistance available to deserving students Linked with Ph.D. programs of reputed universities in Canada

. At least a Second Class either in the Bachelor (Hons.) or Master degree in Economics or in relevant disciplines from any recognized university

Last Day for Application: 25th August 2008, Admission test: 27th August 2008

Time: At 10.00 A.M. Venue: SPZ 1000 (SPZ=Sher Plaza) For detailed information please contact Admission Office or the Department of Economics

NORTH SOUTH UNIVERSITY 12 Kemal Ataturk Avenue, Banani C/A, Dhaka 1213