"Aamar Achhey Jol" to be released in Eid

Ferdous and Bidya Sinha Saha Mim in Aamar Achhey Jol.

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

Litterateur-filmmaker Humayun Ahmed's new film Aamar Achhey Jol is set to be released on Eid-ul-Fitr. The film will be released simultaneously in several theatres in Dhaka. However, the premiere show of the film will be aired on Channel i at 2:35 pm on Eid day. Apart from direction, Humayun Ahmed has written the story and songs and developed the screenplay of the film. Impress Telefilm Ltd. is the producer of the film.

Lux-Channel i superstar '08 Bidya Sinha Saha Mim is set to make her debut through this film. Pijush Bandyopadhyay, Saleh Ahmed, Zahid Hasan, Jayanta Chattopadhyay, Meher Afroz Shaon, Ferdous and Munmun Ahmed are the other central characters of the film.

Aamar Achhey Jol is an adaptation of Humayun Ahmed's novel of the same title. The story line of the film depicts the incidents happening in a police officer's family. Retired police officer Osman arranges a family tour, where his wife, two daughters Nishat and Dilshad and family friends Jamil and Sabir join him. Jamil has been part of the family for long. On the other hand, Sabir, who is an amateur photographer, has bit of anonymity. During the trip, Osman reveals that his younger daughter Dilshad has fallen in love with Jamil. Once, elder daughter Nishat had similar feelings for Jamil. The story turns into another direction, when one day Dilshad asks Sabir to take a snap of her.

Mahfuzur Rahman Khan is the cinematographer and Zoglu Alam is the music director, while S. I. Tutul and Habib Wahid has done the composition of the soundtracks of the film.

The shooting of the film was done at several locations of Sylhet division, including Srimangal, Lauachhara rain forest, Shamsheernagar, Kulaura and Moulavibazar.

Sir Paul defiant on Israel show

Sir Paul McCartney has insisted his first show in Israel will go ahead, despite pressure from campaigners who want him to cancel it.

The 65-year-old will perform some of his biggest Beatles and solo hits at the Tel Aviv gig later this month. But protesters asked him to reconsider over Israel's occupation of the West Bank and its Gaza Strip blockade.

He told newspaper Yedioth Ahronoth: "I refused. I do what I think, and I have many friends who support Israel."

The Israeli government pulled a Beatles concert in 1965 on the grounds it could corrupt the nation's youth.

When asked how the band members felt about the decision, he said it was "a bit insulting".

He added: "The Beatles had a pretty positive influence on the world and only regimes that wanted to control their peoples were afraid of us."

"We mostly laughed at the Israeli government decision." Earlier this year, Israel's ambassador to the UK, Ron Prosor, apologised to The Beatles during a trip to Liverpool.

In a statement confirming the concert on McCartney's website last month, he said: "I've heard so many great things about Tel Aviv and Israel, but hearing is one thing and experiencing it for yourself is another."

"We are planning to have a great time and a great evening. We can't wait to get out there and rock."

Working behind the scenes

In conversation with Jahangir Chowdhury

Jahangir Chowdhury

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

Today, TV viewers can have their pick of entertainment from a host of satellite channels. A group of talented people are behind such programmes. In their ranks is Jahangir Chowdhury, who works for ntv as a programme producer. At present he is producing ntv's daily programme Aajker Shokal and the fortnightly talk show Shamparko.

Jahangir began working for ntv in 2003. His programmes have been well appreciated over the years. He has also produced programmes on special occasions like Eid, other national holidays and ntv's anniversary. Jahangir points to the success of these special programmes such as the one on May Day, titled Konthey Aamar. Another such programme is Falguner Padabali on this year's Pahela Falgun.

Jahangir's first programme for ntv was the daily programme Shubho Shondhya. He pulls out all the stops to ensure the success of the programmes. In his words, "I take pains on sets because good set design adds to the appeal of a programme."

About the fortnightly talk show Shamparko, Jahangir says, "In Shamparko we zero in on family relationships. In each episode we invite a celebrity along with his/her family members. The main point is to find what role the family played in his/her success."

While his profession is inspiring, Jahangir says there are challenges along the way. According to him, "When someone works as a programme producer, (s)he has to be up to date in terms of ideas and ideas do not come right away often. Sometimes we can not implement projects due to lack of timely sponsorship."

On the other hand, he finds inspiration from his work because it is a kind of social commitment to him. Jahangir says, "As a cultural activist (member of Udichi Shilpi Goshthi) I always want to do something for the society. As a programme producer I think I have a chance to work towards that goal."

Jahangir completed his Masters from the Department of Drama and Dramatics, Jahangirnagar University.

All programmes are in local time. The Daily Star will not be responsible for any change in the programme.
