More accolades for "Ironeaters"

Poster of the film.

The film "Ironeaters" (Bangla title Lohakhor), directed by Berlin-based Bangladeshi filmmaker Shaheen Dill-Riaz has won two more first prizes at

"Achtung Berlin - New Berlin Film Award Festival 2008" and "Hachenburger Filmfest 2008", says a press release. The values of the prizes are respectively 9000 Euros for post-production facilities for the next film and 1000 Euros of cash money. With these, the film has won first prizes six times at different international competitions of documentary films.

"Ironeaters" zooms in on the living and working conditions of the workers at the ship-breaking yards in Shitakunda, Chittagong. The film is written and directed by Shaheen Dill-Riaz. Dill-Riaz is also the cinematographer of the film. The talented filmmaker is an active member of Bangladesh Documentary council.

The film was released on June 12, under the distribution of Aries Images, in seven German cities. After six weeks of successful screening at the theatres, the film is now travelling to other cities in Europe. Probably the most significant screening of the film will be held today (September 16) at 14:00 hours for the members of the European Parliament in Brussels. Dill-Riaz will attend the screening. The EU is about to recommend some solutions for sustainable ship recycling to different countries. For a better understanding of this issue the film has been invited to the EU Parliament. The screening will be followed by a panel discussion. The event is co-hosted by Robert Evans MEP and the NGO Platform.

Jennifer Lopez competes in and completes triathlon

Jennifer Lopez

Jennifer Lopez can add athlete to her overflowing resume. The actress/singer/fashion designer/mother completed the Nautica Malibu Triathlon in a swift 2 hours, usmagazine.com reports. The 39-year-old actress pumped her arms in the air and smiled broadly as she hurried across the finish line.

"Thank you guys so much... this is an amazing day," she told the crowd. "I feel really great and so glad I finished and that I made it out of the water," Lopez said. Her husband, singer Marc Anthony, was on the sidelines to support Lopez and even stopped to kiss her between the biking and running portions of the race. Actor Matthew McConaughey also competed in the triathlon, finishing the race in 1 hour.

Lopez's participation raised $127,000 for the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles and the entire event raised $950,000. Lopez was first inspired to run the triathlon while eight months pregnant with twins Max and Emmie, who were born in February.
