Art and Craft exhibition ends at Zainul Gallery

The Disparity by M.D. Asaduzzaman Soheli

The Owl by Mahjabin Rahman Moitry

ERSHAD KAMOL

A six-day group art and craft exhibition ended on September 16 at Gallery Zainul 1, Faculty of Fine Arts. Three young artists--Mahjabin Rahman Moitry, M. Asaduzzaman Soheli and Nargis Akhter--of the faculty of the Department of Crafts participated in the exhibition.

The young talented artists displayed craft works in different mediums such as tapestry, batik, metal and woodwork. Moreover, art works in mixed medium were also on display.

All the three artists presented fabulous tapestry works, the woven colourful textile fabrics with figures or designs. Usually tapestry works are not exhibited because the medium is expensive and involves much hard work.

Each of the artists proved their mettle with their superb design, texture and colour composition. All of the artists have incorporated 'beauty' as a theme.

The figure of a woman and little animals such as rabbit and owl against a backdrop of nature, was depicted colourfully in tapestry by Mahjabin Rahman Moitry. She basically emphasised colour composition in her works.

Besides, realistic works, Moitry created an abstract work titled Emotion in tapestry. In the work human emotion had been presented through warm coloured loom.

Moreover, she displayed four mixed media works. In mixed medium, Moitry created some imaginary characters and named them as tepa. Again nature's harmony was the theme.

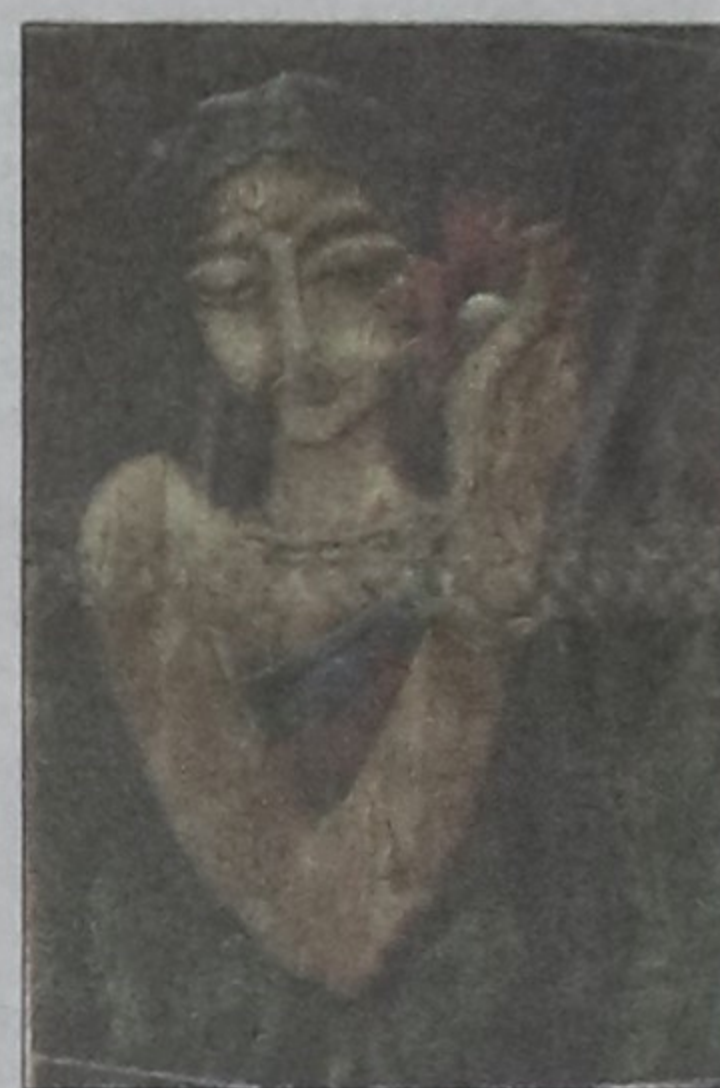

Talented artist M Asaduzzaman

Soheli proved his mastery of tapestry at the exhibition. All of his works can be labeled as abstract works and have titled such as Transparency and Disparity.

The USP of his tapestry was the creation of diverse layers, unique design and vibrant colours. His well-finished tapestries could attract other artists to the medium.

Soheli also presented craft works in other mediums such as woodwork, metal and batik. In these mediums Soheli's approach was figurative and presented little birds and animals.

Nargis Akhter presented some unique woodworks. She displayed three huge woodworks, titled Kushum Shaj, Kushum Nadi and Kushum Kanya. Serene woman figures depicted in the medium by the talented artist had the viewer spellbound. Nargis also displayed masks in metal and figurative tapestry works at the exhibition.

Cultural programme and discussion highlighting Bangladesh

Bangladesh Association Norway celebrates 30th anniversary

Expatriate Bangladeshi artists perform at the programme.

Bangladesh Association Norway, an organisation of the expatriate Bangladeshis living in Norway, celebrated its 30th anniversary in Oslo recently, says a press release. The daylong event included discussion and a cultural programme.

Muhammad Azizul Haque, the Bangladeshi Ambassador to the Nordic countries, was the chief guest at the event while Saera Khan, a member of the Norwegian parliament, was present as special guest. Saera Khan is the only Bangladeshi to have become a member of a European parliament.

The event began with hoisting the flags of both countries by the guests. Badrul Islam, general secretary of Bangladesh Association Norway addressed the audience with his welcome speech. "The association started its journey with a few expatriate Bangladeshis, but over the last 30 years, through its various activities, the association has been successfully representing Bangladesh in this country," he said.

Khorshed Ahmed, president of the association, presented his paper on language titled "Mother Tongue: Natural Resource for Development." In his paper, Khorshed Ahmed emphasised the importance of Bangla for the expatriate Bangladeshis. Expatriate writer Nirmal Kumar Brahmachari further discussed on the paper.

The association honoured three of its members for their contributions to the organisation. The award recipients are Kamaluddin Khan, the first president of the association; M. Golam Moazzem Milon, founder and Afsar Ali, a member of the association. For his remarkable contribution, Dr. Asim Kumar Dutta, professor, Faculty of Medicine, Oslo University, was conferred with a lifetime membership of the association.

The cultural programme featured performances by Laila Banu, production manager of Bangla TV, London. The artists presented some patriotic and popular Bangla songs at the event. The programme also included performances by expatriate Bangladeshi artists. Surovi Barua, teacher of the music school run by the Bangladesh Association Norway, led a group performance by her students.

All programmes are in local time. The Daily Star will not be responsible for any change in the programme.
