

With no access to rehabilitation, there is scant hope for these women. Even their children are deprived of basic human rights.

For some, the future is far away and insecure. For these plighted ones even the present seems to be far more insecure and vague.

Azizur Rahim Peu had worked in Daily Ittefaq for nearly two decades and is currently working as freelance photographer. He is one of the founder/director of DrikNEWS.

