International Day for Eradication of Poverty 2008

CAMPE (Campaign for Popular Education) organized a Road Show, comprising of a musical program and a signature campaign, on 18 October in Dhaka on the occasion of International Day for the Eradication of Poverty-2008. It started from the TSC, Dhaka University at 10.30 am. As a part of a three-day long program planned by GCAP (Global Call to Action against Poverty), the Road Show featured four of the country's eminent artistes- Azam Khan, Shahed, Fahmida Nabi and Sumon (Arthohin), rendering music at four different spots (Dhaka University, Gulshan 1, in front of National Parliament and Dhanmondi Rabindra Sorobar). Hundreds of people including rickshaw pullers, 'tokais,' students and people of different professions joined with their voice and participated in the signature campaign.
