

National Day for Youth tomorrow

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The National Day for Youth 2008 will be observed on November 1 with the theme 'Timely training for resolving unemployment of youth'.

Youth and Sports Secretary Golam Mostofa Talukder called for public-private partnership to resolve all the problems of the youth community yesterday.

He was speaking at a press conference at the Press Information Department conference room in the city prior to observe the day.

"Contribution of the people of all walks of life to the society can play an important role to resolve different kinds of problems of the youth and the government alone cannot do this massive task," he added.

The ministry has already chalked out a series of programme, including youth fare at Bangladesh Shishu Academy to observe the day.

Supplements will be published in newspapers to observe the day. Bangladesh Television and Radio Bangladesh will telecast special programmes.

The main programme of the day will be inaugurated at Osmani Memorial Auditorium at 10:00am. A seminar will be held at the Juba Bhaban conference room at 10:00am on November 2.

Partha Majumdar, Bangladesh Desk officer at the US State Department, visits a token exhibition of photographs of terrorist attacks on various parts of the globe at Bangladesh Institute of Law and International Affairs office in the city yesterday. On his right is Ambassador Wali-ur Rahman.

A gang of 5 to 6 muggers shot Mafuzur Rahman, 27, a sales repre-

Muggers shot at his right leg and chopped his right hand with machete.

Meanwhile, three muggers shot three rounds of bullet at the right leg of Ilias Hussain, 30, another Grameenphone staff, and snatched Tk 2 lakh from his possession at Jatrabari in the city.

'US does not want derailment of electoral roadmap'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The United States does not want that the electoral roadmap of Bangladesh is derailed in any way, said US State Department's Bangladesh Desk Officer Partha Majumdar yesterday.

Bangladesh perhaps is the only Muslim majority country that has parliamentary democracy and the US would continue to support its efforts towards democracy, the official said during a meeting with Bilia Director Ambassador Wali-ur Rahman.

The meeting was held at the office of Bangladesh Institute of Law and International Affairs (Bilia) in the city.

Later, Wali-ur Rahman, also former foreign secretary, briefed reporters on the meeting.

The US official also visited a token exhibition of photographs of terrorist attacks on various parts of the globe, including those on World Trade Centre, Indian parliament and Awami League rally in Dhaka.

Wali-ur Rahman said the US has presented over 50 photographs to Bilia, which will organise an exhibition sometime in December.

The US official is scheduled to leave Bangladesh today after a four-day visit.
