

5 motor vehicles recovered, 5 held

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Members of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) recovered five motor vehicles, including trucks, microbus and private car and arrested five people from different parts of the country yesterday.

The arrestees are Md Omar Faruk, Chatkhali JCD President Kazi Mustakimur Rahman Asif, Amir Hossen alias Shohug of the same district, Kamal Hossen of Horikrishnapur village of the same district and Manik alias Usuf of Narpara village at Manohar upazila in Comilla.

Acting on a tip-off, a Rab-2 team nabbed gang leader Faruk from Japan Garden City in the city's Adabar area.

According to his statement, several teams of Rab conducted drives at Adabar, Jaitia in Sylhet, Kotwali upazila in Comilla and Ramgar in Lakshmipur and recovered two trucks, two microbuses, one private car, fake registration numbers of cars and sedative tablets and arrested them.

Quoting Faruk, Rab officials said the criminals used to hire cars and other motor vehicles from different cities and towns, including Dhaka, Chittagong and Sylhet, and snatched those making drivers of the cars senseless with sedatives when they reached their target areas.

Meanwhile, Dhaka Metropolitan Police recovered seven motorbikes and arrested two in this connection yesterday.

The arrestees were identified as Shumon, 28, of Lalbagh area and Borhan, 45, of Rayer Bazar area. Police said according to their confessional statements, they seized a white private car from Kalabagan area, which was used in snatching motorbikes and other valuables.

SC again asks govt to provide magistrates with all facilities

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court (SC) yesterday again directed the government to provide judicial magistrates with all necessary support staff, vehicles and other requirements.

The full bench of the Appellate Division headed by Chief Justice MM Ruhul Amin also asked the government to submit to this court a report regarding arrangement of manpower, transport and other support for judicial magistrates by November 27.

The apex court passed the order during the hearing of the Masder Hossain case, popularly known as judiciary separation case.

Chief of the South Korean Army General Lim Choung Bin, on behalf of the Korean president, adorns Army Chief General Moeen U Ahmed with the 'Order of National Security Merit' at Korean Army Headquarters on Wednesday. General Moeen received the award for his outstanding contribution to promoting defence cooperation and trust between the armed forces of the two friendly countries.

Moeen seeks Korean help in developing defence capability

UNB, Seoul

Army Chief General Moeen U Ahmed yesterday met Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff of Korean Armed Forces General Kim Tae-Young and sought Korean government's cooperation in developing Bangladesh's defence capability.

During the meeting, General Moeen also proposed that Korean companies could set up joint venture companies in Bangladesh to produce armaments and vehicles, and requested for increased training opportunities for the officers of Bangladesh Army to receive training in Korea.

General Kim assured him of best possible cooperation from his side in this regard and appreciated the role of Bangladesh army in UN peace-keeping operations.

Earlier in an interview to the "The Korea Times", a widely circulated English newspaper, General Moeen highlighted the significant role of Bangladesh Armed Forces in maintaining international peace through participation in the UN peacekeeping operations around the world. He also said Bangladesh has many things to learn from the miraculous economic development of Korea.

Later, General Moeen attended a dinner hosted in his honour by Bangladesh Ambassador to South Korea Shahidul Islam.

Release of Hasina demanded

DU CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) staged a demonstration on the Dhaka University campus yesterday protesting the rejection of the bail prayer of Awami League President Sheikh Hasina by the Supreme Court.

Around 100 BCL leaders and activists took out a protest procession and held a rally at TSC intersection at around 5:30pm.

The student leaders alleged that a vested quarter is hatching conspiracy against Hasina so that she cannot take part in the election.

They vowed to forge a tough movement across the country if the AL chief is not released unconditionally soon.

BCL leaders Mahfujul Haider Chowdhury Roton, Tarek Al Mamun, Sohail Rana Tipu and Sajjad Saqib Badsha spoke at the rally.
