Seminar on Arsenic uptake research plants held at RU

M.A.Kaioum

THE Institute of Biological Sciences of Rajshahi University (RU) organized a seminar on current research on arsenic uptake in plants in association with Skovde University, Sweden on Oct.14 on the campus.

Acting Vice Chancellor of RU Prof. Mamnunul Keramat inaugurated the program as the chief guest of the seminar.

Prof. Dr. Dennis Larsson and Prof. Abul Mandal, school of life science ,University of Skovde, Sweden were present at he seminar as guest speakers.

Prof. Dennis Larsson presented his keynotes on Biomedicine while Prof. Abdul Mandal spoke on the current research on arsenic uptake in plants.

The seminar was presided over by the director of Institute of Biological Sciences Prof.M.A.Bari Miah.

Also spoke on the occasion former member of Pubic Service Commission Prof. Shahadat Hossain Mondol, Prof. M. Shahjahan, Prof. Hafizzaman, Prof. Wahedul Islam and others.

The foreign delegates informed that they were very much interested to sign a memorandum of understanding between Rajshahi University and Skovde University to exchange research, teachers and students very shortly.

About 500 students and teachers of several departments were present at the seminar.

Star Campus - Drishty School of Debate Registrations Open

STAR CAMPUS and Drishty Chittagong are proud to announce its 5th batch of 'School of Debate' under the sensational debating series 'Star Campus Drishty Debate for Generation Next 2008 2009,' exclusively for English Medium students. Students of classes seven to twelve are invited to participate in this training and grooming session, that will consume16 classes, that is, two months approx. Top-class debaters from Dhaka and Chittagong who participated in Worlds' and National debate championships are going to be in the trainer's panel. Interested students are welcome to contact Drishty Chittagong office on Fridays, or dial any of the following numbers and register themselves within November 7th, 2008. The course shall commence from November 10th, 2008.

Contact us at:

2nd Floor, Lushai Bhaban, Cheragi Pahar, Momin Road, Chittagong.
01819 173472 (Masud Bakul), 01819 821757 (Saif Chy),
01717 868525 (Tafhim Himel), 01732 509464 (Masudur Rahman).

Career in Call Center

PROTHOM-ALO.JOBS and United International University jointly arranged a seminar in United International University. The Topic of the Seminar was "Career and Investment Opportunity in Call Center: Bangladesh perspective". The Seminar Partners were United International University Entrepreneur Forum and AICC Call Center.

Possibilities of call center business and employment opportunity in Bangladesh and how Bangladesh can utilize these possibilities in the practical field were the main subject of the seminar. Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Md. Rezwan Khan, Pro-Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Chowdhury Mofizur Rahman, Dean of Business School Professor Dr. Habibur Rahman, Assistant Professor Mohammad Behroz Ali and Asst. Registrar (Career Counseling) Ms. Sharmin Imam of United International University were present in the seminar. They welcomed and thanked Prothom-alojobs.com for arranging the seminar.

Inter batch football final at JU

Ashik Ahmed

THE final of the "A B M Omar Sharif Smiriti Football Tournament" between 19th and 20th batch of pharmacy Department of Jahangirnagar University (JU) was held at Bangabandhu Hall playground on November 2.

The 20th batch lifted the title defeating 19th batch by a margin of 3-2 goals in the tie-breaker. Ashik, Moshi and Mamun each netted one goal for the winning team while Arunav and Halim scored two goals for 19th batch. The full-time play went without any goal.

Tanmoy, custodian of 20th batch was adjusted man of the final for his excellent performance. Milon and Arunav were selected as best scorers of the tournament while Atunu of 19th batch was awarded Man of the Tournament trophy for his outstanding performance in the whole tournament. A total of four existing batches took part in the tournament.

Dr. Sukalyan Kumar Kundu, Associate professor of JU Pharmacy Department was present at the final as chief guest. Later the chief guest distributed champion and runners-up trophies.