CHEMONICS

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Equity Integration Manager

Chemonics International (www.chemonics.com) seeks applications for an Equity Integration Manager on gender for a long-term assignment for the recently awarded USAID-funded PRICE (Poverty Reduction by Increasing Competitiveness of Enterprises) project in Bangladesh. This position is based in Dhaka.

PRICE seeks to increase the competitiveness of key sectors in Bangladesh by (1) providing technical assistance to SMEs and connector firms to increase their sales, employment and investment, and (2) implementing strategic sector interventions (e.g. marketing, standards, training, policy, etc.) to upgrade value chains in the aquaculture, horticulture and leather sectors. PRICE also has a mandate to promote sustainable employment for women and youth.

Responsibilities to perform:

The Equity Integration Manager will ensure that PRICE activities reflect the gender equity dimension of its mission, including the integration of women and youth and social compliance activities. Responsibilities also include identifying key equity-related technical and policy priorities and ensuring the provision of equity-related technical assistance and training design and implementation. It will also include building strong relationships with institutions regarding social compliance standards, policy and implementation.

Qualifications required:

The Equity Integration Manager shall have the following qualifications:

- A university degree, preferably a masters, in gender studies, economics, sociology, development studies, or related field.
- At least 12 years experience, including at least eight years in gender and youth advocacy, social responsibility, and other assignments focusing on equity integration related work;
- Experience developing training programs; including planning, assessment, developing training materials, implementation; supervising training delivery, and conducting training evaluations and measuring impact.
- Preferably some private sector experience.
- Career goals consistent with objectives of PRICE.
- Fluency in written and verbal English.
- Demonstrated experience in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Power Point, etc).
- Demonstrated planning, facilitation and supervisory skills.
- Outstanding interpersonal skills.
- Commitment to excellence, teamwork, respect for people, leadership and integrity.

Send electronic CV and cover letter with position title to nislam@price.com.bd by November 16, 2008. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Vacancy Announcement

Sr. Institutional Development Specialist (Urban Services)
The World Bank Office, Dhaka

The Water and Sanitation Program (WSP) is administered by the World Bank and funded through international partnerships with a wide range of External Support Agencies. It assists national, regional and local agencies responsible for water and sanitation in developing countries to help the poor gain sustained service access. WSP supports the reform of sector approaches and focuses on poverty-targeted, gender-sensitive, community-based solutions in rural settlements, urban areas, and small towns. A current major thrust of the Program's business plan is helping its clients to prepare for and implement actions towards meeting the Millennium Development Goals. In pursuing this mission, WSP staff members provide advisory support to projects and policies, help identify and disseminate best practices and lessons from experience across countries, and facilitate informal networks of practitioners and sector stakeholders. Additional information about WSP can be found on the Program website (www.wsp.org).

As a member of the Bangladesh Country Team, the Senior Institutional Development Specialist (Urban Services) will support the Bangladesh Country Team Leader and other members of Bangladesh Country Team. The specialist will focus on urban water supply, sanitation and solid waste management.

This will require policy support to both national and local government institutions in the preparation of the associated sectoral transformation plans, and capacity-building support to local governments and local stakeholders in the implementation of those plans.

This is a country office position in Bangladesh subject to local recruitment under the Bangladesh compensation plan. The World Bank offers a locally competitive package and is committed to attract and maintain a diverse and dedicated workforce. Equally qualified women and special persons are encouraged to apply.

Further details of the post are available at www.worldbank.org/jobs. Qualified candidates should apply on-line referring to job # 082262 by November 18, 2008.
