

books and 5000 journals and periodicals in its collection. A modern automation process improved the facilities of the library. Every year this library is also enriched by the inclusion of recent books and journals.KUET has a total of 35 laboratories to perform various experiments and to conduct research work.

For the accommodation of the students there are 5 residential halls for the male students and one for female students. Because there is a scarcity of pure

Many engineers from this university have internationally recognized papers and many of these thesis papers are actually of very high quality. Many student projects from this university have earned fame for drinking water in the Khulna zone, KUET has its own water treatment-plant.

KUET have different facilities for research work. Environment, soil, hydraulics, structure, mechanics, heat transfer, fluid mechanics, energy, aerodynamics, machine, electronics, control system, various software development, artificial intelligence, communication and layout are the major fields in the research area. Some large and significant project and research work is also being carried out with foreign participation.