Pogose School founded by NP Pogose, better known as Niki Pogose, and Armenian businessman and social worker on June 12, 1848 is one of the oldest and famous in Dhaka. At least 96 students of Dhaka College had to leave unable to pay tuition fees. TA Weis, the then civil surgeon established "Union School" for those who could not pay. But funds came from Pogose, a former Dhaka College student.

e-mail: starcity@thedailystar.net

Chalmugra helps fight leprosy.

Tulsi heals cough and common cold.

lurturing the rare plai

National Botanical Garden in Mirpur now has a collection of about 170 indigenous species of medicinal plants

SHAHNAZ PARVEEN

The rare medicinal plant collection at the National Botanical Garden in Mirpur is getting more attention in recent times from enthusiasts amid growing popularity of herbal medicines in the country.

At the first sight it appears to be an ordinary garden full of trees, herbs and shrubberies that usually grow in the wild across Bangladesh but the plant variety in its collection has many wonders to offer.

The medicinal plant section covers about 3 acres Bhuiyan.

across the country.

of land nurturing nearly 170 species of rare valuable

Garden, said the main objec- research and display for tive of the garden is to collect scientific purposes. It also and Forests. and conserve the fastdisappearing species of plants with rich medicinal director.

times in our backyard but we users. fail to value them for lack of knowledge about the wonders they have to offer," said

PLANTS THAT FIGHT COMMON ILLNESS

live documentation of these shrubs of 950 species includplants. The collection is medicinal plants and many ing its huge collection of based on indigenous spe- more indigenous and exotic plants species. The purpose Zayed Hossain Bhuiyan, of the garden is to categorise, 57 sections and is managed director, National Botanical document, conserve, Botanical garden also "Medicinal plants grow sells these medicinal plants almost everywhere, some- to interested growers and entertain and educate the general public, said the Established in 1962 covering an area of about 208 acres of land the botanical garden has about 56,000

The botanical garden is a individual trees, herbs, and medicinal plants.

> by Forest Department under the Ministry of Environment species have been listed as > medicinal plants includes ignored. rare varieties such as Malabar nut (Basak), Snake policy or rules and regularoot (Sharpa gondha), tions about the medicinal Devil's cotton (Ulot plants cultivation, conserkombol), Common basil vation and marketing in the (Tulsi), Thorn apple country. Only a few non-(Dhutora), The creat (Kaal governmental organisamegha), Periwinkle tions and university facul-(Nayantara), Life plant ties are working on the (Pathor kuchi), Arjun, plants. Ashok, Chaste tree and many more. Extracts of these plants gradually lost its footing. are commonly used in many modern medicines. served traditional knowl-Alternative medicine practithese plants very much. And without any documentaherbal medicine is becoming more popular.

practice of using medicinal ing awareness among the plants with our modern lifestyle it will help keep us healthy for life," Bhuiyan added.

In Bangladesh about 500 medicinal plants have been found. However, over population and deforesta-The garden is divided into tion have led to the extinction of many species. About 106 medicinal plant endangered. But the issue The assortment of the still remains widely

There is no government

Shamsul Haque, chief (Nishinda), Aloe Vera (Ghrito botanist of the botanical kumari), Neem, Sandal garden said, about 80 perwood, Henna, Devil's tree cent rural population in the (Chhatim), Pennywort country used to be com-(Thaankuni), Curry leaves, pletely dependent on Hydnocarpus (Chalmugra) medicinal plants for their primary health care but it

"The local people conedge through their experitioners (Ayurvedic) and ence and practices, which traditional healers also value was handed down orally tion," said Haque.

Providing technical sup-"If we could blend the port in cultivation and raisgeneral public about its magic effect can give back its status in the country, he noted.

Bokphool, also used as a food item in the rural areas.

Ulot Kombol helps cure many intestinal ailments.

PHOTOS BY SYED ZAKIR HOSSAIN

related diseases and widely used in allopathic product. cough syrup. Neem fights skin infection, works as preser-Snake root has the ability to prevent disorder. Bark of Arjun is used for medicinal purpose

Malabar nut helps cure cough and lung as in the cure of blood pressure, heart diseases. It is popularly used as a cardiac tonic. Devil's cotton helps cure intestinal ailments

while creat helps to cure fever, worms, dysentery and other gastronomic ailments. Common basil juice mixed with honey is a very good medicine for cough and cold and chaste tree helps relieve pain caused by gouty arthritis.

Life plant is good for urinary problems. Aloe Some of the medicinal plants are widely used Vera is widely used in skin lotions.

Sandalwood has antibacterial elements good for skin infection. It is also a very popular beauty hypertension, heart diseases and sleep vative. Devil's tree bark increases breast milk. It is also good for cold and asthma.

Pennywort works as appetiser and digestive. Ashoka bark acts directly on the muscular fibres of the uterus and has stimulating effect on the ovarian tissues helping to prevent menstrual problems.

Henna fights against skin diseases.

Curry leave, an aromatic shrub is a good digestive. It strengthens the liver and helps in the metabolism of fatty acids.

400 YEARS AS CAPITAL CITY

Dhaka Amar Dhaka opens Nov 28

CITY CORRESPONDENT

The 400th anniversary of Dhaka as the capital city will be celebrated amid massive festivity and colourful activities.

A three-year state-level celebration titled 'Dhaka Amar Dhaka,' will be launched on November 28 followed by a daylong programme on the next day.

Chief adviser Dr. Fakhruddin Ahmed will officially inaugurate the programmes on the South Plaza of Jatiya Sangsad at 3 pm, releasing 400 balloons and pigeons.

The grand celebration will include state-level arrangements and events organised by different private bodies presenting the past and present of Dhaka. Various groups and performers have chalked out spectacular shows to mark the occasion.

Committees and subcommittees have been formed to organise and manage the anniversary programmes expected to run till 2010.

The celebration events dren. include firing of cannon, grand rally with horses and elephants, fireworks show and releasing of fanush (lantern) on the opening arrangements there will be traditional Kawali concert, dances, poetry recitals and such places to reintroduce attention will be given to famous traditional comic the city to the new genera-

To recollect the lost heritage of the city the celebration will also include 'Dhakaiya' food festival, boat race, kite festival and display of Dhaka's world famous fabricsthe Muslin ties of the city will also be and Jamdani.

The organisers will also bration. arrange fashion show, painting competition for chil-

Booklets, postcards, stamps and souvenir coins will be released presenting the past glory and signifi-

Distinguished personalihonoured during the cele-

Dhaka City Corporation, gability. Bangladesh Parjatan Corporation, Dhaka

being widely encroached at many points and choked up by severe water pollupressed to make an effort of areas of Buriganga and carry out dredging operation in the river to salvage its navihistorians on the 400 years way back to the 7th century.

now in appalling state of Dhaka as a capital.

According to the most popular version Dhaka was founded in 1608 A.D. as the capital of the Province ruled The authorities will be by Islam Khan during the regime of Mughal Emperor reclaim the encroached Zahangir and it was at that time renamed Zahangirnagar.

However, the history of Dhaka as a prosperous set-There are several views of tlement can be traced all the

Satmasjid in Mohammadpur

During the three-year University, Asiatic Society, celebration special arrangements will made to put up many other bodies will assist shows at historical places in organising the celebration and heritage sites like besides putting up own Bahadur Shah park, Lalbagh programmes. Among other special Fort, Ahsan Manzil, Hosaini Dalan, Curzon Hall, ronmental issues will also Shankhari Bazaar and other be in the spotlight. Special sports for the school chil- Chamber of Commerce and Industries, Dhaka Dhaka Club, Dakabashi and

Some social and envi-

performance by Dhaka's the histories and legends of river Buriganga, which is Ruins of a temple on BUET campus

Burdwan House at Bangla Academy