6th Inter College Holy Cross Science Festival-2008

WITH the preparations starting from as early as 25 October, Holy Cross Girls' School and College drew a close to its festival marking the progression of science education and its inference in real life for the 6 th time in a row. The main event agreeably sponsored by the PRAN-RFL group stretched from 30 October, the inauguration until the prize giving ceremony on 1 November 2008.The ceremony with the promise of innovation and excitement for its participants and visitors was instated by Dr. M Kaykobad, Professor of Computer Science Department, BUET.The opening of the festival was followed by the project placements of the 12 participant colleges namely Notre Dame college, Viqarunnisa Noon college, Adamji Cantonment Public college, BAF Shaheen college, Residential Model college, Government Science college, Shaheed Anwar Girls' college, St.Joshep college, Rifles Public college, City college and Dhaka college along with the host institution. Altogether 80 projects divided into categories like physical, biological, geographical, chemical and IQ related schemes were exhibited both on 31 October and on 1 November from 8.00 to 10.00 in the morning.

Sarah Z H

