Corporate Social Responsibility Award 2008

Standard Chartered
Financial Express
CSR Award 2008

Business and society need to work in harmony towards mutual advantage. The recognition of this need is reflected in the increased attention being paid worldwide to the concept of 'Corporate Social Responsibility' (CSR). To encourage and recognize the outstanding CSR efforts in Bangladesh, Standard Chartered and The Financial Express joined hands to sponsor the Corporate Social Responsibility Award in 2005 as an annual event. Submissions from companies are now being invited for the CSR Award 2008.

Eligibility and Criteria

Companies doing legitimate business in Bangladesh and having a record of engaging in not-for-profit activities for social and community welfare are to be considered for the awards. They should be able to meet high standards of business practice; such as reflected in tax payment, transparency of accounts, regard for environmental standards and labour laws, product quality assurance, etc. The amount of CSR-related spending will be considered in relation to the companies' annual profit and turnover, while the innovativeness and effectiveness of CSR activities will also form a basis of evaluation. Both past record and on-going CSR activities of a company will be taken into consideration. The awards will be given separately for two categories: manufacturing and non-manufacturing enterprises.

Trustee Board/Panel of Judges

The Award is administered by a Trust formed for this purpose. The Board of Trustees, which will also act as the panel of judges, includes:

Professor Wahiduddin Mahmud | Samson H. Chowdhury | Syed Manzur Elahi | Mahbubur Rahman | Dr. Hafiz G. A. Siddiqui | Osman Morad | A.H.M. Moazzem Hossain | Major General (Retd.) Amin Ahmed Chowdhury | Rokia Afzal Rahman | Ahmed Ali Shah

Submission/Nomination

Applications or nominations for the awards should be made in a prescribed format which can be obtained from the following contact address or the website. There should be sufficient documentary evidence in support of applications/nominations. The Trustee Board welcomes any help in nominating or identifying deserving companies.
