

Yen rises against dollar as recession looms

AFP, Hong Kong
The yen advanced against the dollar over the past week while other Asian currencies fell as fears deepened over a looming global recession.

interest rates by at least 50 basis points from the current level of 1.0 percent when it meets later this month, dealers said.
The European Central Bank and the Bank of England cut key interest rates midweek to thwart an accelerating global downturn.

of the AUD is still highly correlated with measures of risk aversion and stock market direction, it would appear that the slower pace of declines for commodity prices and amendments to the outlook for global growth are allowing the AUD to build some sort of consolidation base," said Tony Morris of ANZ Economics and Market Research.

Zimbabwe to introduce 200 million dollar note

AFP, Harare
Inflation-wracked Zimbabwe plans to introduce a 200 million dollar note just days after a 100 million dollar note came into circulation, the government announced Saturday.
The 200 million dollar note, announced in a notice in the government gazette, will bring to 28 the number of notes put into circulation by the central bank this year alone, as the country struggles with the world's highest inflation rate of 231 million percent.
