Int'l Book Fair begins today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The 15th Dhaka International Book Fair kicks off at the central playground of the Dhaka University today.

Chief Adviser Fakhruddin Ahmed will inaugurate the 15-day book fair organised by Jatiya Granthakendra.

In separate messages, President Iajuddin Ahmed and Chief Adviser Fakhruddin Ahmed welcomed the initiative of organising the book fair.

"Book is the best way to exercise knowledge and they play an important role in enlightening us and enhancing moral obligations and social values," said President Iajuddin Ahmed.

The chief adviser said, "Along with bringing immense pleasure, books also enrich people's mind and have a significant role in developing human resources."

A total of 150 local and overseas publishing houses are participating in the book fair with the theme 'Book for a peaceful world'.

ipating in the book fair with the theme 'Book for a peaceful world', said Secretary to the Ministry of Cultural Affairs Mohammad Sharful Alam at a press conference at the secretariat yesterday.

The fair will remain open from 11:00am to 8:00pm and on holidays it will remain open from 11:00am to 8:30pm. The entry fee is only Tk 5 while the school students will enjoy the facility of free entrance and will get books as gift for their school libraries, said the secretary.

He also mentioned that books would be sold at 25 percent commission to encourage the readers to buy more books. Furthermore, the participating publishing house that would publish most books and the bookstall selling the highest number of books during the fair will be awarded.

The government, semi-government, autonomous and private organisations, foreign publishing houses and embassies have the scope to take part and sale books in the fair, he added.

To make the book fair more attractive, cultural programmes, subject-wise discussions, seminars, open discussion on the books on liberation war, women and children and meet-the-writer sessions will be held.

Channeli, Radio Amar and the Daily Shamokai are media partners of the event.

Vote for grand alliance candidates: Ershad

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Jatiya Party (JP) Chairman HM Ershad yesterday urged people to vote for the candidates of Awami League-led grand alliance in the forthcoming polls to build up a country based on the dreams of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

"We want to build up a new Bangladesh... Bangabandhu's Golden Bangladesh," he said while addressing a rally at Banani ground as part of his election campaign in Dhaka-17 where Ershad is contesting for the grand alliance.

He said the alliance will root out all corruptions that pervaded the country and establish good governance if it is voted to power.

"You know me as a former president but I have another identity: I'm elder brother to Sheikh Hasina. And the relationship is above all politics," Ershad said.

The JP chief also said he is conducting election campaign freely this time after a long period. Leaders and workers of JP and grand alliance joined the rally.
