

LET IT BE A DIFFERENT VICTORY DAY

VICTORY Day today. Different government and private organisations have taken up colourful programmes to celebrate liberation of the country on this day in 1971. But on December 14, only hours before the victory, the Pakistan occupation forces and their collaborators brutally killed the top intellectuals as their last nail in the coffin. On Sunday, people from all walks of life remembered the martyred intellectuals with a heavy heart amid renewed vow to materialise the dreams of the valiant sons of the soil. The days this year bear special significance as the people in the national election on December 29 may speak out against three major evils—corruption, war crimes and terrorism.
