NETRAKONA-2 GRAND ALLIANCE Fakir Ashraf's stand puts supporters on horns of dilemma

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Netrakona

Supporters of Awami League (AL)-led grand alliance in Netrakona-2 constituency are in a dilemma as Jatiya Party leader Fakir Ashraf Friday declared himself as candidate of the alliance while district AL General Secretary Ashraf Ali Khan Khasru is already in the polls race with ticket from the electoral combine.

Meantime, former state minister and BNP leader Lutfozzaman Babar started his election campaign as an independent candidate with the symbol 'pineapple' in Netrakona-4 yesterday after he got back his candidacy through an order from the High Court.

AL Acting General Secretary Sayed Ashrafur Islam earlier declared the name of Fakir Ashraf as grand alliance candidate in Netrakona-2 (Netrakona Sadar and Barhatta) constituency but the returning officer (RO) cancelled his candidacy for defaulting on bank loans.

Later Ashraf Ali Khan Khasru, general secretary of Netrakona district AL, was declared as grand alliance candidate for the seat and the alliance leaders and activists, including those belonging to JP, started campaign for Khasru.

Fakir Ashraf

But, now the situation has taken a complicated turn after Fakir Ashraf in a public meeting on Netrakona Shahid Minar premises declared himself as grand alliance candidate, following his get back of candidacy through a court order.

BNP leader Babar submitted his nomination paper as independent candidate in Netrakona-4 but the concerned RO cancelled his nomination paper as he was awarded 17 years imprisonment in an arms case.

Babar, who is facing several cases, came to the constituency after getting clearance from the court and party leaders and activists started campaigning for him.

Lid Col (ret) Ataul Huq is contesting as BNP-led four-party alliance candidate in the constituency.

Fresh voters to choose progressive politicians

Voter survey in Rajshahi finds

ABU KALAM, Rajshahi

Fresh voters of Rajshahi city want to vote for the progressive minded candidates in the upcoming parliament election, says a survey report of Sachetan Nagarik Committee (SANAC) of Rajshahi.

The voters taking part in a recent survey conducted by Sachetan Nagarik Committee (SANAC) of Rajshahi expressed their support for politicians and said they would ignore businessmen and retired bureaucrats in the upcoming election.

SANAC presented the report at a press conference at their office in the city on Friday.

Earlier, SANAC in association with Youth Engagement and Support (YES) group conducted a survey on 412 people including 303 fresh voters.

Among the people taking part in the survey are students, women, service holders and nine businessmen in Rajshahi city.

The fresh voters hoped that the parliament speaker will perform his duty neutrally and they wanted women as speaker and/or deputy speaker.

A total of 79.89 percent voters wanted deputy speakers from opposition party and 86.04 percent voters did not support walkout during parliament sessions.

Hozzatul Islam Sohag, member of YES group, read out the survey report during the conference and mentioned that all of the voters demanded trial and punishment of war criminals.

The fresh voters hoped that corrupt people should be brought under trial and political parties should give more importance to patriotism, avoiding party interest.

The young voters also expected that political parties will not use religious sentiment in politics and they will ensure women's empowerment.

Prof Chowdhury Sarwar Jahan Sajal, joint secretary of SANAC, SANAC member Prof Abdus Salam, Hassan Millat, YES group convener Monira Rahman Mithi, TIB programme officer Rafiqul Islam and YES group member Iftia Ohab Taki were also present during the conference.

Monsura pledges empowerment of women

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Nilphamari

Lone woman candidate in Nilphamari district Monsura Rahman Jahangir Mohiuddin wants to show the way to empowerment of women.

Monsura Rahman of National Awami Party (NAP) is contesting from Nilphamari-4 (Saidpur and part of Kishoreganj) constituency in December 29 national election.

Monsura Rahman is the eldest daughter of NAP leader and senior minister in late president Ziaur Rahman's cabinet late Moshir Rahman Jadu Miah.

Talking to this correspondent local people said Monsura is likely to bag a good number of votes as once NAP had a good organizational strength in the railway town. Moreover, many railway workers live there who have respect for Monsura's father - a labour leader.

Kalaroa voters 'indifferent' to election

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Satkhira

People of Kalaroa upazila are now hesitant to cast vote in the upcoming election.

This is because of breach of trust by political leaders who promised to them several times to construct Khordo Bridge on the River Kabodak before each and every election but later forgot the same.

Former BNP leader Habibul Islam Habib who was elected a lawmaker in Satkhira-1 (Tala-Kalaroa) constituency in last election is also contesting this year. Like previous years, this time also he promised to construct the bridge, said Khordo Bridge Implementation committee convenor Raju Ahmed.

Earlier, AL candidate late Syed Kamal Bakht was elected a lawmaker in the constituency in 1996 election. He too promised people to construct the bridge but later forgot it after election.
