

TWO YEARS IN FRAME

20

DHAKA TUESDAY DECEMBER 30, 2008

Fakhruddin Ahmed takes oath, Jan 12, 2007

Sheikh Hasina arrested, July 16, 2007

Army on patrol, Jan 2007

Tarique Rahman arrested, March 8, 2007

Moeen U Ahmed distributes relief, 2008

Memorable Moments

As the rule of caretaker government ends, the country is left with some memories -- happy and painful -- to carry them into the future. The Daily Star reproduces the pictures of some known faces and memorable events to relive the past, as Bangladesh is poised for a shift back to democracy after about two years of emergency rule.

Violence at Dhaka University, Aug 21, 2007

Protests against army in Dhaka, Aug 21, 2007

Dhaka University teachers released, Jan 22, 2008

Khaleda Zia arrested, Sept 3, 2007

Arafat Rahman Koko arrested, Sept 3, 2007

Motiur Rahman Nizami arrested, May 2008

Stand against war criminals: Sector commanders' national convention, March 21, 2008

Sheikh Hasina released, June 11, 2008

Khaleda Zia freed, Sept 11, 2008

Anti-corruption campaign, May 11, 2008

Army hands voter list to CEC, Feb 5, 2008

Awami League election campaign in Dec 2008

BNP election campaign in Dec 2008