

A fire show in front of Hotel The Mirage

visit on those places by bus. One evening we went to downtown Las Vegas and there was a giant LCD Screen, which was considered the largest screen in the whole world.

If you want to visit Las Vegas manage at least seven days. Otherwise you would sigh with anguish like we did while leaving Vegas. We could barely tolerate the pain when our last day at Vegas came. Due to bad weather my flight was cancelled and I had to stay one more day. All of my friends left on 19th December 08. One thing I could not resist myself from writing is that everyone has a general idea that Las Vegas is a place for gambling. However, Vegas had an intrinsic unworldly beauty nobody would believe until they visit the city. Each side of the city was surrounded by mountains that reminded me of the stories of westerns classics that I read in my teenage years. Las Vegas was an oasis in past, but now it has turned into a dazzling, glamorous, mind-boggling city. Someone was telling before the tour that people would not know the real America until they visited Las Vegas and I concur. As I left Las Vegas, I kept planning to return to the city of lights once again.
