University day

along with the Treasurer Professor Syed Abdul Hye hoisted the university flag and released balloons at the premises of the Microbiology faculty in the morning. Professor Muhammad Muniruzzaman said that the university has been contributing to educational research and cultural activities ever since it was established on this day in 1971.